On the cover:

Kristin Hosbein's award winning paintings are recognized by her gestural brushwork, innovative use of color, and light-filled compositions.

ARTIST STATEMENT:

"There is delightful process that happens when painting from life...one sees the play of light on form; the artwork becomes poetic, reducing the values and colors to the notes necessary to tell the story. Much of my work is plein air or ala prima. Working wet on wet, on-site and outdoors, the paintings are completed within a few hours before the light shifts. My studio paintings are created from these studies or from sketches and photos. The intention of my work is to provide a light-filled healing moment for the viewer so that the energy that I feel during the process of painting will be translated within the art. My work is often more from the heart than the head".

Kristin is an official U.S. Coast Guard Artist, with four works included in the U.S. national collection in Washington D.C.

She is a member of Oil Painters of America, Indiana Plein Air Painters, American Impressionist Society, the Palette and Chisel in Chicago, and the Great Lakes Plein Air Painters.

She is represented by Mackinac's Little Gallery on Mackinac Island, and in many private and corporate collections. Kristin will be serving as Artist in Residence for Mackinac Island State Parks on Mackinac Island during July 13-26, 2020. You will find her studio at The Box Factory for the Arts, in St. Joseph, MI.

About the Harbor Country® Chamber of Commerce

The Harbor Country® Chamber of Commerce (HCCC) was formed in 1981 to promote tourism and commerce in the towns of New Buffalo, Three Oaks, Union Pier, Lakeside, Harbert, Sawyer, Grand Beach and Michiana. The success of the Chamber's efforts led to trademarking the destination as "Harbor Country®" and catapulted the area to national prominence as a major Midwest destination. Today, the Chamber continues to promote the area, and surrounding communities, as an attractive place to live, create, work, and play.

AT YOUR SERVICE

For custom builder Doug Nelson, his business, At Your Service, represents the lessons and values that he's picked up throughout his entire life. Work is not just making a living. It's art. The art of building — creating, designing, producing.

His influences are eclectic. Doug started building on his grandfather's Connecticut farm and took construction jobs to pay his way through UCLA Film School. His creative passions took him touring with musicians, displaying art in the Smithsonian, publishing photography in national publications, creating award-winning film and television media, and producing Grammy-nominated music.

After college, he got his contractor's license and started his own company, building everything from custom homes to music studios. He credits his grandfather for planting these seeds. A Swedish immigrant, he taught Doug about what he calls "the New England ethic" as it applies not only to woodworking, but also to living and loving life. "I was 8 or 9 when he handed me a set of nail bags and taught me how to cut, dowel and peg, and to create dovetail joints," he says. "While we were working, he would talk to me about the attention to detail needed to make a product that lasts, and how the spirit of the way we worked affected not only the product, but our life, too."

Today, these valuable life lessons continue to inspire Doug and his team as they bring their clients' dreams to fruition. "From small additions to lakehouse and barn remodels to large commercial projects," he says, "they all get the same love and attention to detail."

At Your Service is a company of craftsmen who do it once, do it right, and stand by their work. "I enjoy every aspect of the creative process, from concept and design to breaking ground and finishing details," says Doug. "It all connects and gives me a feeling of accomplishment when all the elements come together."

BLUEFISH VACATION RENTALS

Vacation homes are meant to be enjoyed whether you're a renter or a home owner. Jason and Erika Milovich understand this down to their core. As owners of the leading rental company in Harbor Country®, with the most repeat customers and home owner retention, Bluefish goes above and beyond the rental agent role.

Their full service, concierge approach is designed to anticipate and respond in real time to individual needs of home owners and their guests. The owners, and their highly trained year-round staff, are always available to talk in person to resolve any client request or situation. "It's really about strengthening the relationships and creating excellent experiences on both sides of the house," Erika explains.

Guests can count on Bluefish to help make more out of every vacation, from restaurant reservations, entertainment and activity planning, to shopping, housekeeping, pet needs, baby sitters and more. A feature-rich website and the exclusive GuestPass provide convenient online access to property managers, vacation rental details and guest services before and during their stay. Every guest will also check-in to find convenient starter supplies and a lovely welcome gift at their rental home.

Owners enjoy stress-free assurance that Bluefish is their one stop partner, with all the resources to handle property management, and maintenance with seamless reliability. Recently the company launched Bluefish Property Management (BPPM), to extend their expertise in property care services to non-rental second home owners in the off season.

Jason and Erika care deeply about actively supporting the local community, from sponsoring festivals like Ship & Shore, Harvest & Wine Festival, and Art Attack, to charity events like Michiana Humane Society. Their belief in participation and partnership shines through, from membership in New Buffalo Business Association & Harbor Country® Chamber of Commerce, to leading the formation of Harbor Country Vacation Rental Association (HCVRA) to provide promotion and education about the vacation rental industry.

Home owners, renters and the community know that Jason and Erika Milovich believe passionately in the power of connection to bring rewards full circle. "Doing our best for any one of us, benefits all of us."

CAPTAIN MIKE'S FUN PARK

David and Gigi Skinner are carrying on their family business as owners of a special place that brings kids of all ages together for value added family fun.

The original fun park was built in 1990 and this year celebrates its 30th anniversary. "My dad is the original Captain Mike," Gigi explains proudly. Since taking ownership, the couple has added many new and updated attractions, while preserving the park's nostalgic heritage. Captain Mike's has no entrance fee and is cash only. Guests can affordably purchase tickets for whatever they choose, and the choices are many.

Go-Karts bring race track fantasies to life, zooming around the curves in Indy-style cars. "We love how excited kids get, taking the wheel for the first time," David says with a smile. Even the littlest racers can feel the thrill, riding in double-seated cars along with an adult, for free. Ages 5 to 10 can ride Jr. Go-Karts on their own on a smaller track.

Everyone loves Mini Golf, a fun challenge on a creatively designed 18 hole course. Save the big swings for Batting Cages with slow, medium or fast pitching machines for baseball and softball. Jumpshot, is the ultimate basketball experience played while bouncing on a trampoline.

Bumper Cars spin in all directions for a comedy of collisions in big bouncy tubes. Crash, splash and create more laughs on water in Bumper Boats. Friends and family squirt you silly from the sidelines with the Captain's Water Cannon. Get wet or get even launching water-filled balloons at Water Wars.

In the Game Room players win tickets for prizes mastering classic or the latest arcade games. Relax at The Captain's Galley Snack Bar serving summertime favorites under a shaded picnic pavilion.

Attractively spread over five acres of lovely landscaped grounds, Captain Mike's Fun Park is on Red Arrow highway in Bridgman, just north of Warren Dunes State Park. It's a labor of love and a truly unique experience for multiple generations of families, teens, couples or groups to come day or night to connect and play.

DOOLEY'S LAKEHOUSE PUB

Dooley's Lakehouse Pub is not your typical neighborhood haunt. Just a little off the beaten path, Dooley's in New Buffalo has gained a reputation for being a place locals and visitors alike can get a fantastic meal and a great customer experience. "We want customers to feel welcome, and enjoy consistent, fresh, quality food at a good value, with friendly service," Colleen Dooley, owner of Dooley's Lakehouse Pub says. "I love that people come here to meet, make friends, have fun, and feel connected."

Colleen, and her husband, John, are living their dream. This creative and energetic couple took a leap toward their shared vision of owning a casual, family-friendly restaurant serving high quality, made-from-scratch food in April of 2018.

John's experience is rich. He's enjoyed a successful career that includes stretches as head chef, and Director of Operations at several esteemed restaurants from New York to California to Chicago. But it's New Buffalo that John and Colleen decided was their little slice of heaven.

The Dooleys saw the potential, and the importance of local history in what was previously Bubba's famous Jersey Sub Shop. Dooley's subs are still served on fresh baked bread daily. The menu now includes new favorites like a house made corned beef Reuben, Italian beef, meatballs and homemade marinara featuring John's own grandmother's recipe.

Dooley's also created New Buffalo style pizza, featuring hand-made dough that's hand tossed by Dooley's pizza chefs. John describes it as having "a thin, crispy crust, and a little bit of chewiness." They spent six months making and testing nearly 400 pies to bring their original pizza dough recipe to perfection.

There's also superb, generously sized specialty salads, Dooley's Famous Potato Soup, and a rotating menu of lunch and dinner specials. The full-service bar features an impressive wine, spirits, draught, domestic, imported and craft beer list.

Dooley's mission is to give back to the community that has embraced them so warmly. Open year-round, check out their Facebook page for the most recent calendar of live music, game nights, karaoke, and charity events.

FALATIC'S MEAT MARKET

For over 44 years, Ron and Peggy Falatic have stuck to a simple strategy for success: "We simply sell the best meat possible". Generations of loyal customers agree. Falatic's Meat Market in Sawyer is the place to go for choice steaks, beef tenderloin, prime rib, holiday turkeys, hams, pork, lamb, a variety of homemade chicken sausages and brats, and fresh ground hamburger. Falatics also sells fresh Atlantic salmon, shrimp, lobster and popular pickled herring. There's even delicious pastries and pies from a great Chicago bakery.

Ron is confident in his expertise. "I'm the smartest guy living in the meat business today. Anybody smarter is dead" he adds with a wink. When Ron first walked into the old meat market with an eye to buy it over five decades ago, he was already well-seasoned in the meat business. "I stood at the scale, and saw it was 3 steps into the cooler, 3 steps to the saw, you're wrapping the meat right there, then you walk 3 steps to the cash register. So, in 9 steps you could take care of your customer. I thought, this is perfect, I could run this place myself."

That's not how it worked out, though. "Peg's been by my side the whole time," Ron smiles. Today their son, Nick, daughters Valerie and Pamela, all work together to keep the family business humming. While grinding, slicing, chopping, wrapping, mixing and stuffing, they never miss a beat in welcoming and taking good care of their customers.

If you order your Fresh Amish Turkey at the Holidays, rest assured that Falatics will unwrap it and wash it to make sure it is in perfect shape for you pick up. If you want custom cuts, or aren't sure how much you'll need, or how to best prep, grill or cook your meat, the folks at Falatics will help you out. It's all about total commitment to customer satisfaction and the finest quality possible at Falatic's Meat Market.

FROEHLICH'S

There's a distinctive pulse to downtown Three Oaks, with Froehlich's at the heart of it all for over 25 years. Owner and chef Colleen Froehlich, renowned for great food, fresh baked goods, homemade preserves and premier catering has launched Froehlich's Pantry and Kitchen.

The all new food and shopping experience integrates a full-service restaurant, bar, wine shop and specialty market, along with a favorite stop for many; the grab and go deli.

Shelves are stocked with Froehlich's whole line of house made preserves, sauces, marinades and condiments, using fresh from the farm ingredients. "We are proud of what we do and share the view of our production area housed behind turn of the century windows salvaged from the restoration of our new 19N venue."

Everything is artfully housed in a renovated historic factory building that features original architectural elements throughout. On the second floor is a spacious loft style event venue, perfect for special occasions and weddings.

Follow your taste-buds across the street to find Froehlich's Bakery, in the original location. Here fresh baked artisan breads, pastries, pies, cakes, and unique desserts line the shelves and display cases.

"I love how the new ventures have sparked all of our creative brains and our collective vision". Colleen Froehlich is quick to credit her collaborative team. "People have to operate in their gifts. You can't grow without bringing in the right talented people to help in each facet."

Most of the dishes on the menu feature something from Froehlich's pantry line; a sauce, a marinade, or a condiment on the side. Even some of the inventive cocktails feature a special Froehlich's flourish, like preserves to flavor the mixology, or crumbled bakery cookies to rim the glass.

"Part of the rush for me has always been to see the satisfaction that our food brings to people. Now with the restaurant, and our own event venue, it's like bringing guests into my home....into spaces I have curated to enhance the food we create and serve. Watching the synergy of this is quite magical for me."

GRAPE AND GRAIN TOURS

The glass is more than half full for Kim Knuth. Born and raised here, she is vintage Southwest Michigan. Knuth is thrilled about the positive impact that the recent boom in wineries, breweries and distilleries has had on the local economy. Several years ago, while sipping a glass of wine with a few close friends in the industry, the idea for Grape and Grain Tours was launched. The vision was to showcase the excellence of longtime favorite local wineries, along with the newest group of crafters and vintners, exclusive to the region.

Today, the company is family owned and operated by Kim, her husband Grant and daughter Ashley. Passion and dedication are their hallmarks to delivering personalized, VIP service that meets every customer need. A day of touring and tastings is an all-inclusive fun-filled experience. Guests can sit back and enjoy the ride with all of their selections, reservations, tasting room fees, lunch and transportation placed in the expert hands of hospitable hosts and guides.

"It's important to us that our guests feel welcomed when they arrive and feel like locals when they leave. We build our tours with destinations that offer something unique." On the way to tasting award winning wines, brews, spirits, and food, tour guides are more than just designated drivers. They are friendly, helpful, educated hosts who go above and beyond to ensure their groups' comfort and enjoyment. Music, water, snacks, plus gorgeous vineyard views accompany the guides' insider scoops and tales of local lore.

A selection of tour packages includes visits to three or four wineries, all tasting fees, plus lunch with a glass of wine at a charming local restaurant, plus pick up and drop off at convenient locations. Private shuttle rentals are also available for large groups who prefer personalized itineraries. Kim enjoys talking with customers to help them select the right arrangements for their group. She'll even collaborate to design a private tour or add special touches to make any occasion or celebration even more perfect.

JOURNEYMAN DISTILLERY

It's often said that life is about the journey not the destination. At Journeyman Distillery that belief results in truly unique guest experiences. There is so much to taste, see, do and discover at this one-of-a-kind destination, visitors and local's journey there again and again.

It all started with owner Bill Welter's passion for making high quality handcrafted whiskeys, bourbons, rye and other distilled spirits. The history-rich Featherbone factory building, which houses the distillery and Staymaker restaurant, immediately became an inspirational part of the recipe and flavor that is Journeyman today.

Exposed brick walls, wood beams, planked floors, huge windows, salvaged lighting and open spaces vibrate with generations of workers' pride and spirit. Even the names of bottled spirits, menu items and mixology creations nod proudly to the turn-of-the-century manufacturing story.

Made exclusively on premise, all spirits begin with 100% locally grown organic grains. Whether you go for a tasting or a guided tour, you'll find yourself immersed in scents, sights, sounds, and stories of the makers' art and craft.

Fine food at Staymaker restaurant invites families, friends, couples and groups to dine deliciously on creative cuisine in a friendly casual atmosphere amid authentic rustic factory decor. Weddings, parties, and private events of all sizes continually fill spaces above and beyond the restaurant. Grab a seat at the friendly bar and taste a flight of the Journeyman spirits or creative cocktail mixology.

Outside, behind the factory walls is Welter's Folly, where golfers of all levels can experience the charm and challenge of a world class 18 hole putting green. Golf is just another part of owner Bill Welter's journey, which took him from Northwest Indiana, to Scotland, to Tasmania, to Chicago—discovering his passions and learning his craft along the way.

The creative entrepreneur and his wife Johanna are proud partners in expanding the business and its many customer experiences. Plans are fermenting to continue their vision as part of the community, vitality and growth of Harbor Country® and beyond.

LAKESIDE CABINS RESORT

Imagine owning or renting a beautiful vacation cabin on a scenic campground amid 62 acres of natural woodlands with two sparkling lakes. Here you can connect with family and friends while hiking, fishing, biking, swimming, kayaking, taking long peaceful walks, enjoying campfires and starry nights. Heated swimming pools, picnic pavilions, bbq grills, fire pits, ping pong, shuffle board, basketball court, playgrounds, recreation center with arcade games and more, all offer endless days of fun. Gated security and evening quiet hours ensure privacy and tranquility.

Fifteen years ago, partners and brothers Tim and Ted O'Neil purchased a beautiful natural campground to launch their vision of an affordable and unique vacation home community. The brothers describe Lakeside Cabins Resort as a place where you can truly unwind and get away from it all. It's one of the last places, remaining to enjoy the simple pleasures of a bygone vacation lifestyle. "It's a little like 'glamping' without the tent," says Tim. Lakeside Cabins are affordable by design. Ownership starts at just $70,000, and rentals at $175 a night.

Currently the property has 170 cedar wood tiny house style cabins, featuring custom built screened porches and decks. Each is thoughtfully designed within approximately 400 square feet of floor space and over 150 square feet of loft space. Efficient design allows the varied floor plans to maximize the living room, sleeping areas, kitchen and dining area and full bath. Connected porches make the homes seem larger, with ample room for guests to relax and entertain in outdoor comfort. Cabins are equipped with all the creature comforts like heating and ac, cable TV and modern appliances. Wifi is also available.

The O'Neil brothers, along with resort director Robin Smith, are friendly and passionate hosts. Activities, games, and sporting equipment are always free and grounds are meticulously maintained. "The magic is seeing parents, grandparents and kids discover new connections enjoying outdoor fun together. The community atmosphere creates lifelong friendships, too." Families, couples, retirees, and groups of all sizes revel in this getaway haven right in the middle of all Harbor Country® has to offer. The best part? There's still space available to custom build or rent a cabin for your family.

MOERSCH HOSPITALITY GROUP

You might say Matt Moersch has a few things going on. For starters he heads up making some of Southwest Michigan's best loved wines, beers and spirits. But beyond the rolling vineyards, wineries, tasting rooms, breweries and distilleries, there's also restaurants, live entertainment and events, epicurean dinners, sustainable gardens, and even a food truck and trolley. Plus, an ongoing calendar of more unique experiences at all seven Moersch Hospitality locations.

There's always something special happening at every stop on what the Moersch team calls "The Sip + Savor Trail," a roadmap to distinctive destinations including The Round Barn Estate, Round Barn Brewery and Public House, Tabor Hill Winery and Restaurant and Free Run Cellars. There's also The Filling Station, up north in Coloma and well worth the short trip. Customers can earn real rewards as they explore all the fun and flavor at stops along the Trail.

Moersch and his talented team are constantly creating more reasons for wine, brew and food lovers to keep returning. "With all we have going on, my biggest challenge is not getting too far down in the weeds. I need to keep focused on what's next and expanding the Trail," Moersch says with enthusiasm. Most recently he launched the Sip + Savor Trolley Experience, a personalized, hands-on wine, beer and spirits tour.

Passion and inspiration are at the roots of Matt's vintage upbringing. Born into a 30-year tradition of grape growers and craft makers, his authentic wine family lineage is at the foundation for what has evolved into a diverse and exceptional offering of taste experiences for locals and tourists alike.

It's been an organic journey of learning and growing Moersch explains. "I love what I do. I like farming and growing grapes. I learned how to make wine as a kid and later I learned to appreciate all the different tastes. I never thought I'd be in the restaurant business but it's really a natural progression. Pairing great wine with great food just makes sense."

THE PEASANT'S PANTRY

Inside a lovingly renovated 1950s building in Sawyer, discover a tempting array of culinary experiences that bring together the creativity, passions and heritage of owner / creator Michael Faltum.

Dine in or carry out at the full-service breakfast and lunch café. The menu highlights enticing takes on classic comfort foods, including a scrumptious waffle flight, Cubano sandwich, lox platter, or incredibly popular pancakes, that Faltum unabashedly claims are the fluffiest you'll ever taste.

Shop the delicatessen, offering some of the finest sliced meats, cheeses and a variety of freshly made prepared foods. You'll also find daily selections of fresh bakery treats, plus an impressive array of retail specialty foods including snacks, wines, craft beers and liquor.

Their liquor license is a delightful surprise. Customers can enjoy what Faltum jokingly calls a "Boozy Brunch" accompanied by wines, mimosas, local craft beers, or a delicious deli Bloody Mary garnished with cheeses and meats.

The day starts with baking at 4:30 and soon the whole kitchen is bustling with prep. "We make everything from scratch; our pasta salads, soups, berry jam, lemon curd, all of our dressings, batters, pickles and giardiniera. Plus, we're doing catering trays, charcuterie boards, or advance pick up orders all day."

"I'm so proud of my staff," Michael beams. "My kitchen manager, our talented baker, my amazing general manager, the line cooks, the servers, I love these guys. They're creative, phenomenal workers."

Faltum credits his culinary skills to growing up in a family of exceptional home cooks, particularly his French grandmother, who modeled European style techniques that make his food stand out. "Peasant food is the best food out there. They learned how to do great things with the scraps, figuring out how to cook it, season it, get creative with it, give it the love and attention it needs to become wonderful peasant cuisine."

Always happy hosting dinner parties, Faltum's future plans include offering special ticketed dinners to benefit local charities. Becoming an active part of the local community, giving back, and growing his relationships with his customers, are all highly satisfying ingredients of Michael's recipe for success.

PIZZO & ASSOCIATES, LTD.

Woodland splendor, grassy dunes, sunlit prairies, meadows bursting with birds & blooms, the wetland chorus of frogs or a lakeside haven. You made the choice to have your home here, immersed in the natural beauty of Harbor Country®.

For properties large and small, Jack Pizzo leads a team of expertly trained landscape architects and ecologists to collaborate with you in achieving a vision that reflects the natural beauty of the area. Nature's diverse landscapes, and the healthy ecosystems that support them, are the blueprints that inspire the award winning design created by Pizzo & Associates, Ltd.

A thriving native landscape is achieved by bringing land back to its natural balance. This involves walking the property with you to identify and eliminate invasive species, overgrown brush or excessive shade. Pizzo's talented landscape architects will listen to you and ask the right questions: How do you want to use your property? What is your personal aesthetic? They'll create comprehensive plans, integrating all the important ingredients necessary for success. They'll take into account how light, temperature, typography and weather will encourage the health of native plants, flowers, trees, shrubs and wildlife, allowing them all to thrive.

Once the proper conditions are restored, gorgeous native plants can be reintroduced, or may even pop up on their own, to delight and flourish. With that comes the soul-soothing presence of migratory birds and songbirds, butterflies, pollinators, insects and other wildlife.

Pizzo & Associates also recommend and manage appropriate hardscape, paving, lighting, and maintenance that suits the ecology and design, enhancing the sustainability, beauty and harmony on your property.

Living in a healthy environment has become top of mind for today's homeowners. This has always been at the foundation of the Pizzo philosophy.

A wilder beauty blooms in a recovered landscape design. Inspired with native plants, grass and stone, it's a departure from the manicured look of suburban gardens. Instead you'll enjoy the colors, shapes, textures, fertility, well-being and peace that nature intended.

TOM HEMINGWAY - RE/MAX HARBOR COUNTRY

After 20 years of living in Harbor Country®, Tom Hemingway has a rich history of buying, selling, building and renting property here. Enough to rightly call himself a vacation rental specialist.

Since he began selling real estate in 2003, Hemingway says, "The key is having an entrepreneurial spirit and finding your niche in it" His special niche is applying creativity and relevant career experience to each client's search for the perfect property. His background includes night club design, ad agencies, buying and building several vacation homes and unique developments like Firefly. For many years, Hemingway and his partner, John Natsis, also owned and managed Bluefish Vacation Rentals. All his layers of experience just seem to strategically fit.

"I know the market and how to protect my clients, where to buy and where to avoid. I also know how the market could shift, how it did shift. Plus, my years in the vacation rental business gives me the confidence and credentials to help guide clients to buy or sell a vacation rental property that will be successful."

The move from managing rentals to selling real estate was just a natural progression for Tom. "There's this handshake between the two, our renters became our friends and we developed a trust, then they became our buyers and sellers. Over the thousands of people we've rented to through the years, we're still connected."

Hemingway always starts with asking clients "What's important to them, how are they going to use the property?" He also believes in state-of-the-art web tools and marketing "Everything is focused on that first showing... and the first showing is online."

Hemingway genuinely wants to do well for his clients. He asks himself, "If life changes and six months later, they come to me and say, 'Tom, we need to sell that house,' I want to know I can sell it."

Tom and John still have two personal properties offered for rent here, through their boutique company called Beachtown Rentals. They're also planning future vacation homes to own and rent in Palm Springs.

VILLA NOVA PIZZERIA

The signature taste of Chicago tavern style pizza is made and served fresh daily at Villa Nova Pizzeria in New Buffalo. Owner Dawn Workman brought the legendary favorite here, when her best friend from childhood entrusted her with their authentic Sicilian family recipe. Villa Nova creates their made from scratch pizzas using their exclusive one-of-a-kind dough that bakes into a thin, flakey crisp crust.

Add to that Villa Nova's own amazing sauce, fresh grated cheese and a line-up of choice toppings including their own amazing hand-made sausage. It's no wonder Villa Nova has earned the #1 rated Tavern Style Pizza award from ABC Chicago's Hungry Hound.

Even the way they prepare and cut their pizzas makes Villa Nova a special taste experience. Every square cut slice of sausage pizza is guaranteed to include its own big chunk of meat. Or, if you prefer pepperoni, you'll love how it tastes served under the cheese. The family-friendly dine in, carry out and delivery spot also offers pasta dinners, sandwiches, homemade soups and delicious salads. There's also individual sized pizzas and cauliflower crusts available.

The newest addition at Villa Nova is its lively outdoor bar and dining patio. Dawn's husband David created the unique design that is a mix of open air and industrial style. There's plenty of group seating at high top community tables. Weather is no worry with a fully covered bar area and four-season enclosures that invite a sociable crowd year 'round.

A regular line up of local live music makes it a fun weekend destination for locals and tourists.

You can also catch a game on the large screen TV, play corn hole or put-put golf on the mini-green, or relax with your drink around up the big fire pit. The full-service bar features a nice wine selection and fifteen taps including several local craft brews. Classic, frozen and creative specialty cocktails are also available.

Stop by, call for pick up or delivery, or order online. Villa Nova is also perfect for your special catering and private party occasions.

WELCOTT FARM

"There's just no such thing as one size fits all when it comes to dogs," say Tim Scott and Jeff Welch, owners of Welcott Farm. Whether checking-in for a day or an extended stay, Jeff and Tim take time to personally greet and get to know every guest. After gradual introductions with other dogs, and carefully observing how they adjust to their surroundings, guests are carefully placed into supervised playgroups to ensure compatibility and safety. Giving one-on-one nurturing attention and playing with dogs is how Scott and Welch love to spend their days.

Outside in the large secure enclosures, dogs enjoy fresh air and freedom to romp around, socialize and interact. Indoor play spaces are available no matter what the weather. When it's time to rest, eat or sleep, each guest retires to their own spacious, immaculately clean personal pen.

Situated on twenty pristine acres in Harbor Country®, the beautiful retreat has recently added a new 1500 sq. foot addition. The separate but connected new space includes ten more individual pens and a new large outdoor enclosure, another indoor play space and feeding room, plus one secluded pen with a private outdoor enclosure for dogs who are anxious or have special needs. Carefully planned to nearly double boarding capacity, Welcott remains small and flexible enough to maintain their commitment to mindful, attentive, individual care.

Tim and Jeff's home is on site. They share it with two gorgeous bloodhounds and an english cream retriever. As life-long dog owners and advocates, they've worked with animal shelters, humane societies and rescue organizations. Their retriever was adopted after fostering, through their partnership with Great Lakes Golden Retriever Rescue. Welcott is the first stop for rescued homeless goldens brought here from Turkey. Eddie, their first to come through remains as the gentle ambassador and greeter at Welcott.

Jeff Welch and Tim Scott have no doubt they've found their true calling.

"For us, Welcott Farm is more than a business. It's a labor of love for sure. We love providing peace of mind to our clients and love our guests like they are our own."

⚠️ BEACH SAFETY TIPS! ⚠️

- Be aware of Rip Currents. Even strong swimmers can get caught in these powerful currents that can happen at any beach along Lake Michigan. Safety tips for avoiding and escaping rip currents are provided at all Harbor Country beaches. Check rip tide warnings at weather.gov/crh using 49117 and 49129 zip codes.
- Know how to call for help. Call 911 for emergencies and 269-684-5274 for non-emergencies.
- Know how to report your location. When using the road end beaches in Chikaming and New Buffalo Township, report the number of the nearest Blue Mile Marker and the name of the beach access point. These markers are coordinated to the Berrien County 911 system. The New Buffalo Beach is the only beach staffed by lifeguards.
- Be aware of water quality. E-coli counts in Lake Michigan fluctuate and water quality is monitored by the Berrien County Health Department. Beach closings and advisories are posted at deq.state.mi.us.
- Take only memories, leave only footprints. Trash receptacles are available at all beaches. Please do your part to keep the beaches clean.

Relax at Sweethaven...

For decades people have been coming to Sweethaven to create vacation memories they will cherish for a lifetime.

Both child and pet friendly, our fully furnished rental cottages accommodate 2 to 14 people, and are available for your getaway all season.

Nestled in the heart of Harbor Country, with only 6 cottages on 9+ wooded acres, there is a feeling of spaciousness and tranquility that makes tightly wound grown-ups sleep like babies. Each cottage has its own unique look and location, but all have every amenity needed for a comfortable retreat.

The moss-covered paths beckon you to take a walk in the woods. The tree house, horseshoe pit and the volleyball court beg you to come and play. The screened porches, sunny decks and private hot tubs offer serene spots to just sit and rest.

All year long Sweethaven is where beach excursions begin, snowball fights breakout, and campfires happen.

WINE, BEER, SPIRITS

With a climate similar to Napa Valley in California, the vineyards in and around Harbor Country® have been producing award-winning wines for decades.

Today, Michigan vintages rival those of the west, east and Pacific coasts and share the stage with craft breweries and distilleries offering seasonal brews and organic spirits.

Take a tour and raise a glass.

Cheers!

Wayward Tours 7700 W North Ave 4b, Elmwood Park, IL, 312-613-9982 waywardtours.com

The rolling hills and dunes of Harbor Country®, officially known as the Lake Michigan Shore Appellation, have grown produce with first-class taste and outstanding appearance for over 100 years. On the same latitude and leeward juxtaposition to a large body of water, the terroir is similar to the great wine growing regions of Europe and Napa. The plants grow deep roots here, thanks to the perfect combination of fertile soil, sandy loam and precipitation to nurture flavor-packed fruits and exceptional hops for craft beer. The influence of Lake Michigan, known as "lake effect" coaxes Mother Nature to play gently through the four seasons. Delaying the budding of fruit until after the last spring frost and then in autumn, sharing the influence of summer-warmed lake water to extend the growing season. In winter, a protective blanket of snow envelopes vineyards and fields to protect roots from extreme cold temperatures.

Since the 1800s, farmers were drawn to these ideal growing conditions to grow a vast array of fruits including grapes, peaches, plums, cherries, apples, blueberries and strawberries. Wineries were established along the shore, to be closer to the vineyards and ferment wines known for their crisp texture and exquisite character. The area now boasts over 12 wineries, offering visitors a chance to tour, taste and wander vineyards.

Craft beer fans have a choice of local breweries, where crowds are lively and the home-grown beer choices are plentiful. Brewers gather hops grown in their own backyard to conjure craft brews, most especially India Pale Ales that rely on the ever popular hoppy palate. Hops field production continues to increase here to meet the demand, evident along the back roads where vines heavy with cone pods cling to trellis' constructed with 25-foot poles. Brewers take advantage of Harbor Country's bounty by infusing fresh produce notes into their beers. This friendly competition between breweries provides for an ever changing and creative selection of suds for the beer lover to explore.

From the earth to the bottle, the Harbor Country® region offers the freshest beer and wine in the country.

LAKE MICHIGAN SHORE APPELLATION FACTS

WINE

Lake Michigan shore appellation extends 72 miles along the eastern shore of the lake, and covers 1,280,000 acres.

The oldest commercial grape production dates back to 1867.

Michigan is ranked 13th in wine production in the nation. Also, Michigan is the fourth largest grape-growing state in the nation.

LMSA produces half of the state wine grape production. Berrien County is one of the leading fruit producing counties in the nation. 40% of Michigan's quality wine grapes are grown within 25 miles of Lake Michigan.

2.7+ million gallons of wine is produced annually in Michigan. Wine harvest begins at the end of August into early November.

CRAFT BEER

1.2 pounds of hops are needed to make a barrel of craft beer

Michigan is number 1 in hops production outside of the Pacific Northwest.

810 acres of hops are grown in Michigan

Harbor Country® and Beyond

Harbor Country® traces its roots to the early days of the Potawatomi Tribes who gamed, fished and cherished the waters and woods of the area. But it was Cpt. Wessel Whittaker whose ship was forced to harbor in New Buffalo during a storm in 1834, who is credited with laying the foundation for the community that would become a vacation destination.

Located in the southwest corner of Berrien County, Michigan, Harbor Country stretches 15 miles north from the Michigan state line and inland 8 miles to Three Oaks. It consists of eight eclectic small towns –

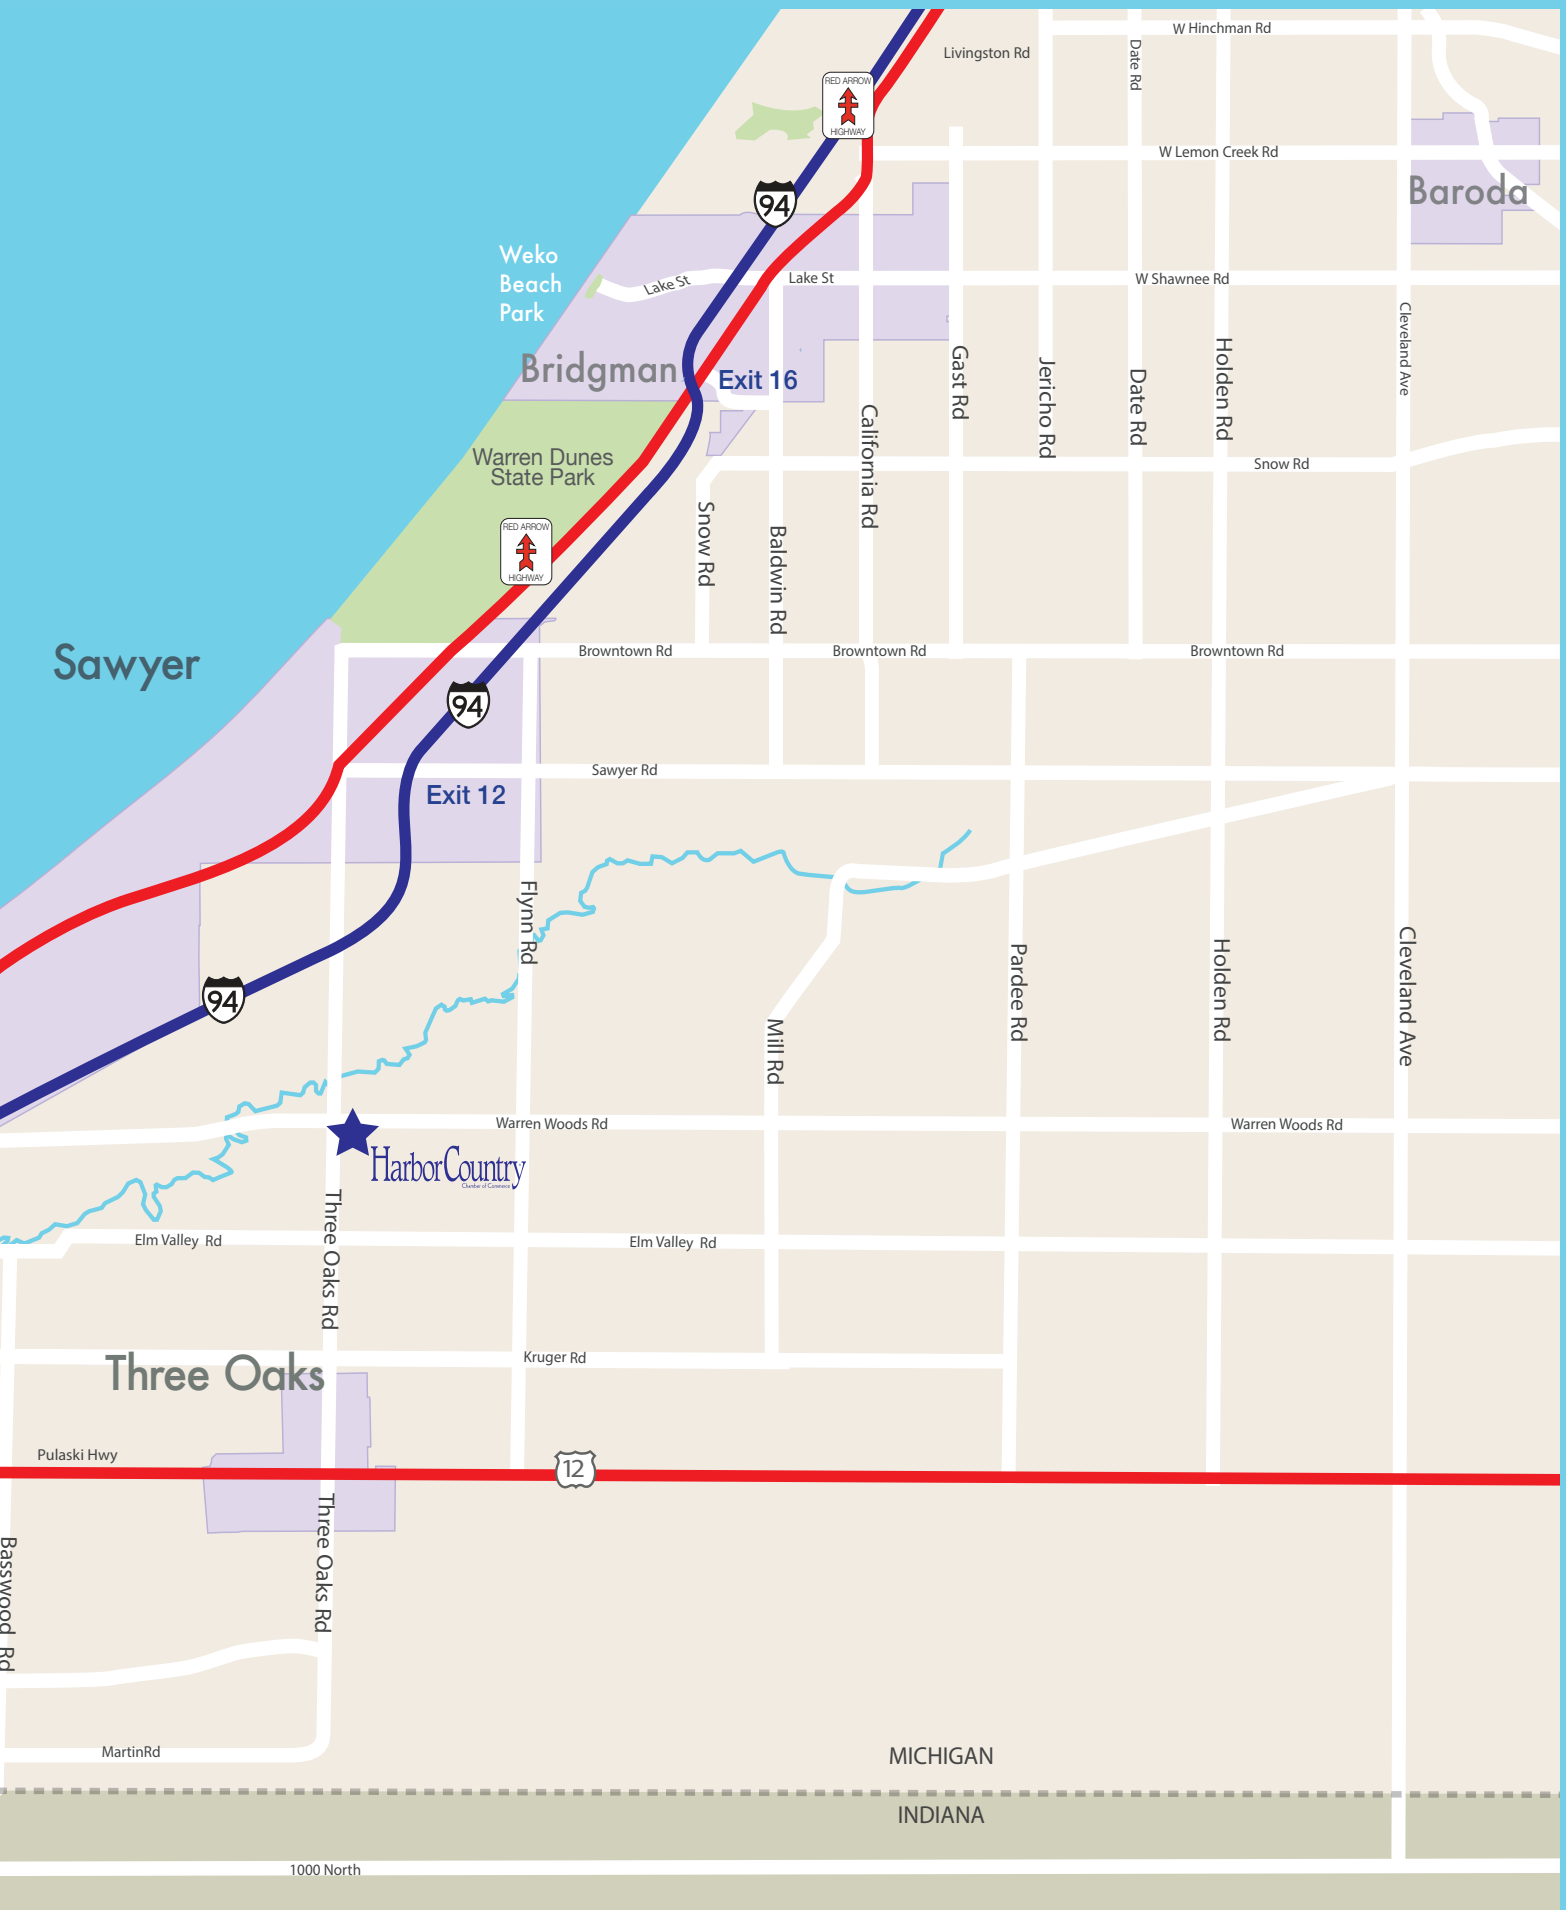

Michiana, Grand Beach, New Buffalo, Three Oaks, Union Pier, Lakeside, Harbert, and Sawyer – that represent the best of both worlds: endless days at the beach and countrysides brimming with farms and orchards.

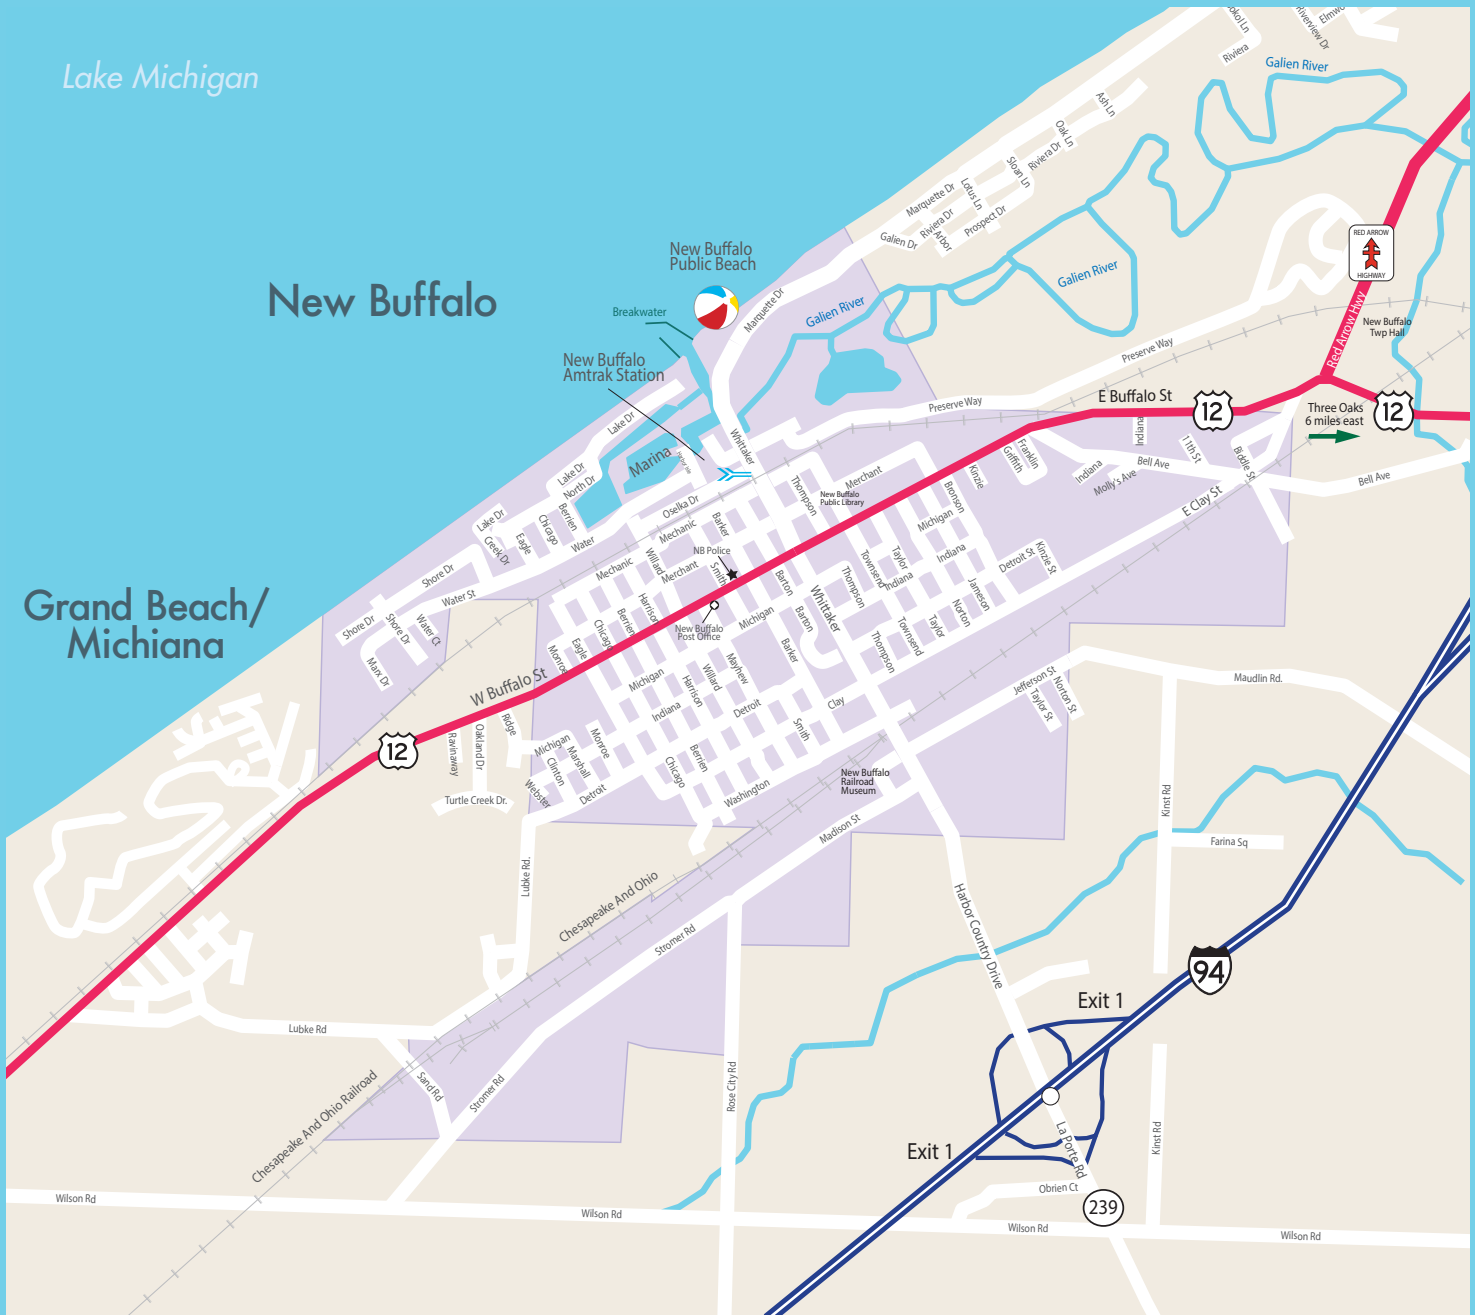

Harbor Country is close by, yet a world away. Only 70 miles from downtown Chicago, it provides the perfect escape for a day trip, week-end getaway or vacation stay. It is driving distance from major Midwest cities like Detroit, Indianapolis, Grand Rapids and St. Louis. With its central location, Harbor Country has become the place for families and friends to connect via train, plane or automobile.

A trademarked destination, Harbor Country has long been known as a summer vacation hot spot referred to as “The Hamptons of the Midwest” and “Chicago’s Riviera”. Today, with its vibrant arts and culture community, a lively local food scene, and an explosion of world-class wineries, craft breweries and distilleries, it’s no wonder that Harbor Country is becoming a year-round home for ex-urbanites in search of a slower pace of life along the Lake Michigan shore.

New Buffalo

New Buffalo is the gateway to Michigan and the cornerstone city of Harbor Country®. Its harbor boasts the largest number of slips on the sunset coast, a public boat launch, transient marina and large public beach – all walking distance from the downtown district. A variety of unique stores, eateries and lodging facilities line the streets. There is an Amtrak stop with three daily trains and shuttle service to the Four Winds Casino.

Grand Beach

The stately white gates of Grand Beach have welcomed visitors and Chicago politicians to the village since the 1900s. Initially developed as a resort area, Grand Beach is home to a public golf course, nearly 50 Sears & Roebuck cottages and three Frank Lloyd Wright homes. There is a small commercial district along U.S. Highway 12.

Michiana

The Village of Michiana is the southernmost town of Harbor Country® and one of the last areas in the region to be developed. Best known for its “Michiana” log homes, built into the dense woods that dot the shores of Lake Michigan, the village is primarily a quiet, residential neighborhood. The most often heard question is, “What stop are you at?” referring to the old bus route stations that still dot Lake Shore Drive.

Lake Michigan

Lakeside

Union Pier

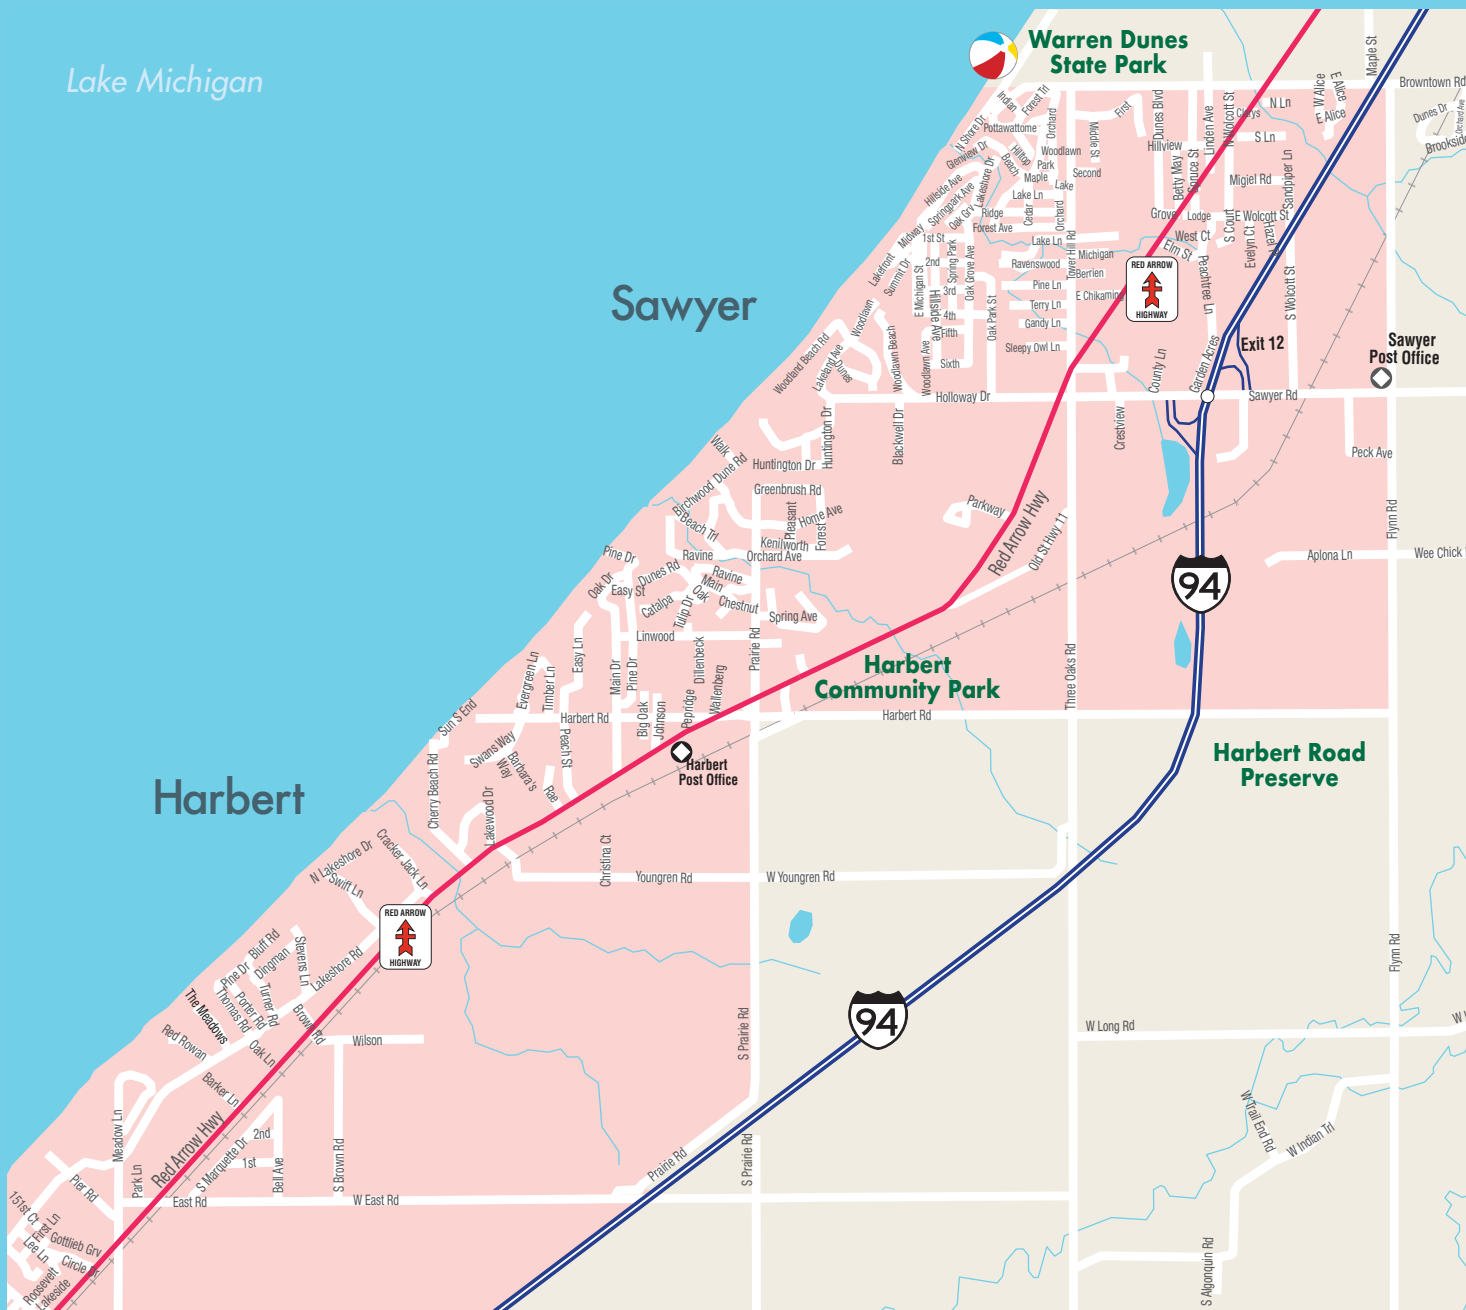

Union Pier

Four miles north of New Buffalo, Union Pier is a major vacation destination with a wide variety of places to stay — quaint Bed & Breakfasts, historic inns, vintage cottages and modern luxury homes. Named for one of the shipping piers used to transport timber to Chicago in 1870, the town has deep ethnic roots that are still visible today. Small, road-end beaches are walkable and bikeable as are numerous restaurants, shops, and bakeries.

Lakeside

The history of Lakeside comes alive at the Wilkinson Heritage Museum, home of the original 1854 trading post and at the Lakeside Inn, a state registered historic hotel. A strong sense of community is fostered by an active homeowners' association that organizes an annual Memorial Day parade and Ice Cream Social. In recent years, Lakeside has attracted a number of design studios that accompany antique shops and specialty stores along Red Arrow Highway.

Lake Michigan

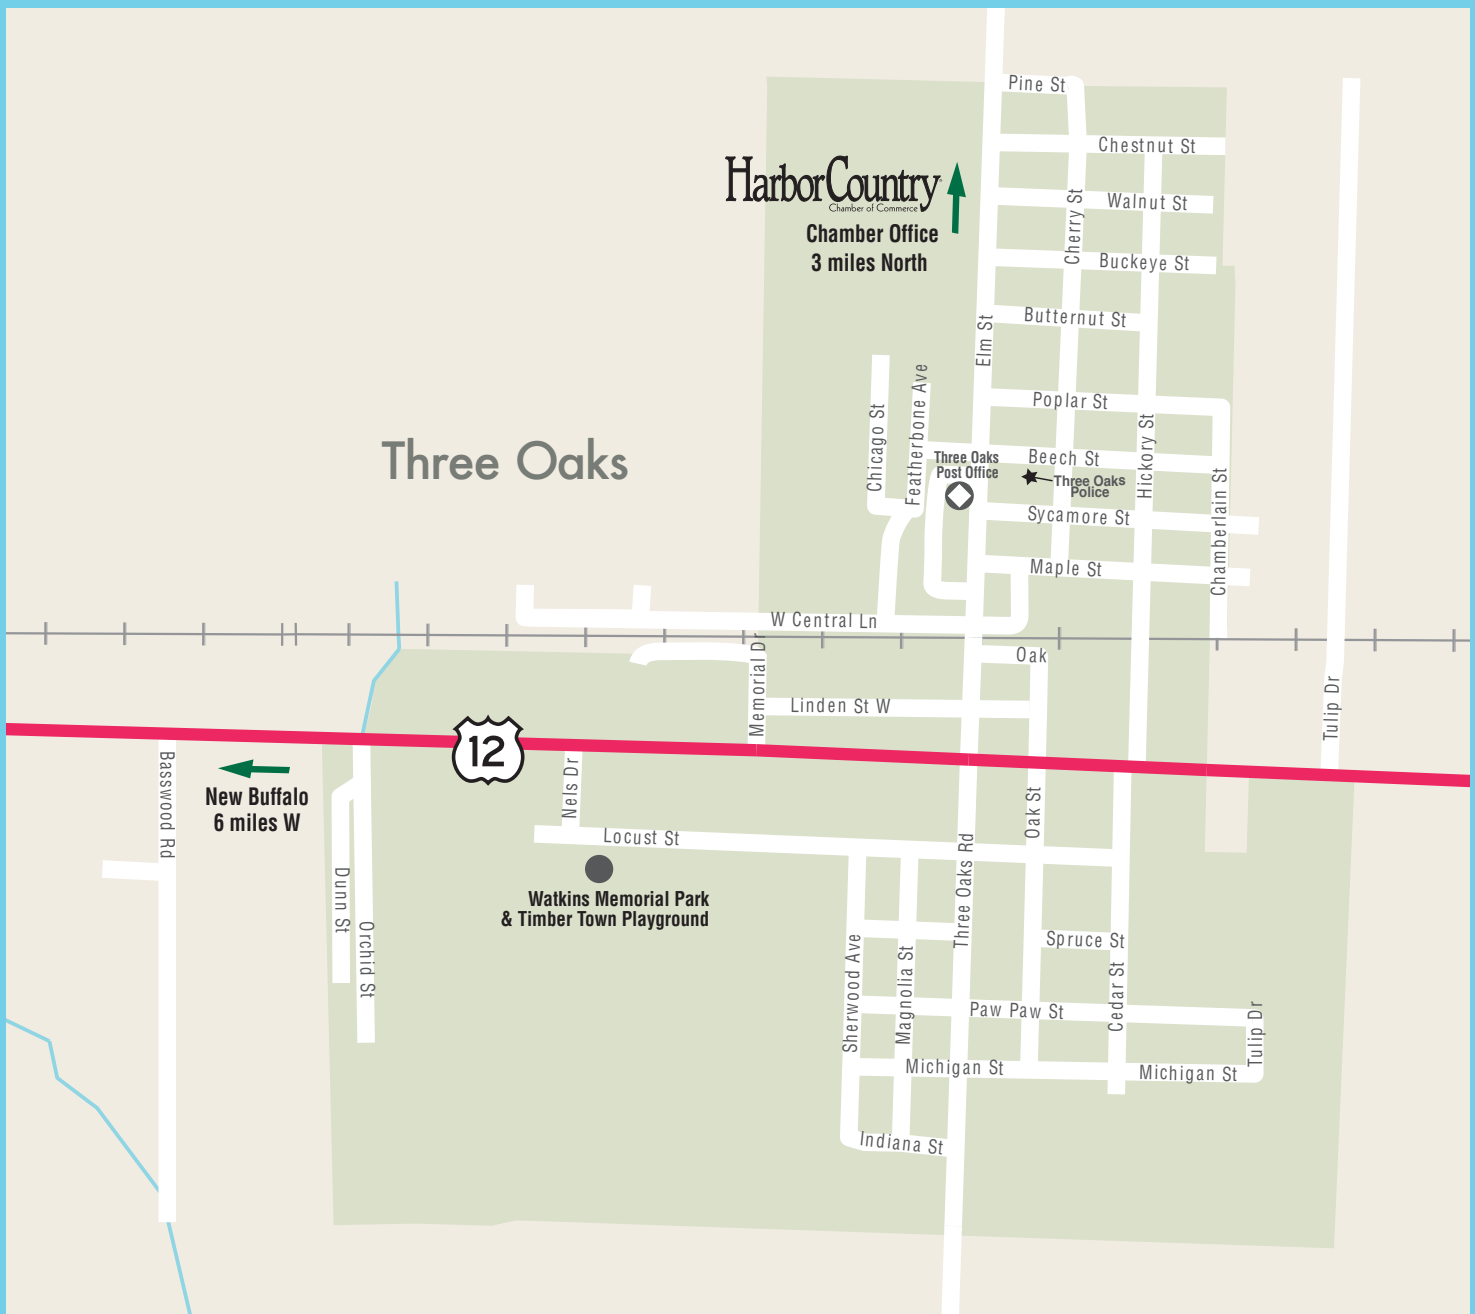

Harbert

Harbert has changed since the days Carl Sandburg and his goats roamed its wooded lanes, but has lost none of its appeal. The influence of the Scandinavian families lives on at several Swedish influenced businesses, which co-exist with restaurants, antique stores and furniture galleries. Harbert Community Park is popular with visitors and residents alike with its playgrounds, dog park and new Carl Sandburg memorial.

Sawyer

The northernmost community of Harbor Country®, Sawyer, is home to one of Michigan's top destinations – Warren Dunes State Park. The Park offers acres of dunes, campgrounds, and a dedicated dog-friendly beach. Downtown Sawyer has grown tremendously over the past few years. It is home to a local craft-brewery, a destination garden center, restaurants, art galleries, and an old fashioned hardware store.

Three Oaks

The Village of Three Oaks is the arts and cultural center of Harbor Country® with a live performance theater, fine arts cinema, art galleries, eclectic shops, and one of Michigan's largest organic distilleries located on a historic Main Street. The Village hosts the world's largest Flag Day parade and the state's biggest bicycle event, the annual "Apple Cider Century" which brings more than 5,000 cyclists to enjoy 100 miles of Harbor Country® trails.
