David McNabb, Financial Advisor

I am incredibly fortunate to have the opportunity to work and live in such an amazing community. I love southwest Michigan! It is a perfect place to raise a family, to work and to spend your retirement years along the beautiful lake-front. I built my practice on understanding the difficult and less traveled paths that many of us choose for our livelihoods. What do a business owner, engineer, teacher and retired executive all have in common? They need personalized strategies to help achieve their goals for and in retirement. Call to schedule a consultation and see if we are a good fit for you!

FALATIC'S MEAT MARKET

Our Strategy:
We simply sell the best meat possible"

Since 1976, Ron and Peg Falatic have stuck to this simple strategy for success. Now their son, Nick, and daughters, Valerie and Pamela work with them to keep the family business humming.

Falatic's Meat Market in Sawyer is the place for choice steaks, beef tenderloin, prime rib, chicken, ham, pork, lamb, homemade sausage and brats, and more. There's a variety of fish and shellfish, and even delicious desserts from a great Chicago bakery.

If you want custom cuts, or need advice, the Falatic's team is there to help. Falatic's Meat Market is committed to customer satisfaction and providing the finest quality possible.

THINGS TO DO

The Woodlands Course at Whittaker

Peggy O'Brien Schulze with her husband Richard, Jim and Brad West.

Golfers like to say, “All bets are made on the first tee”. Back in the 1960s, the late Dan O’Brien bet on the growth potential and natural beauty of Harbor Country. He began purchasing farm after farm in the New Buffalo area. Over the decades his vision and entrepreneurial spirit drove him to develop the hundreds of acres he’d acquired into a world class golf course offering breathtaking views through 18 holes of woods, water and sloping fairways.

Peggy O’Brien Schulze fondly recalls the original story. One day her mother Mary, an avid golfer, unexpectedly walked into her father’s office. Surprised to see her he asked, “What are you doing here, I thought you went golfing?” “Well, it was men’s day!” she replied disappointedly. “Those damn men wouldn’t let me golf!” That’s when her father decided, “Well, Mary, I’ll build you a golf course and you can play whenever you want.”

Peggy’s son Jim West recalls, “It was a unique experience to watch how our grandfather, guided by famed golf course designer Ken Killian, transformed the land while preserving the ecosystem and stunning natural beauty.”

The centerpiece, a renovated 1920s farmhouse welcomes guests for golfing and dining 7 days a week. The Captain’s Pour House serves signature fare for breakfast lunch and dinner in a casual setting with a welcoming bar and scenic outdoor terrace.

“The vision was always to deliver a public course with the best of country club amenities.” second son Brad West explains. “Guests enjoy the clubhouse, pro shop, snack shop, locker rooms and a large practice facility with a driving range and short game area.”

Exciting private events spaces are also available. Mrs. O’s Room hosts smaller gatherings for sit down dining for up to 60 guests in front of an original stone fireplace. Larger events celebrate in the rustic-chic charm of The Pavilion, which can accommodate up to 300 guests with on-site catering and event planning options.

Future plans include a growing residential community with more homes, pools, tennis courts, walking trails and more.

A Delicious Reason to Eat In Season.

by Lindsay Navama

Harbor Country is famous for its beautiful Midwest beaches, but few know that this delicious region of Southwest Michigan is also located in one of America's fruit belts and rated second in the nation for the diversity of produce grown. Fruit has been grown in Harbor Country's Berrien County since it was settled in 1829, but at that time most growing was done for personal use. In the 1850's Michigan lost many peach trees due to a few extremely frigid winters. The peach trees in Berrien County however, still thrived due to its location next to Lake Michigan. This realization inspired the county to begin cultivating peaches and other produce to sell commercially in Chicago and beyond. With access to twenty percent of the world's fresh water supply and unusually fertile soil, it's not surprising that Berrien County has become one of America's top growing regions.

From May through November, roadside farm stands, local grocery stores and u-pick farms brim with the season's bounty. Come spring, look for the reddest rhubarb, amazing asparagus, spinach and peas. By June, broccoli, strawberries, cherries, and cucumbers have usually come online. The sun drenched months of July, August and September deliver an edible rainbow of fruits and vegetables from tomatoes, blueberries, peaches, and plums, to okra, beets, beans and peppers. Once autumn arrives, hit the apple orchards, stroll the grape vineyards, pick some pears, and be sure to find a pumpkin patch before October 31st.

Whether you're visiting or lucky enough to call Harbor Country home, seize the opportunity to eat what's in season by using this simple produce chart. When you experience a sweet, juicy summer tomato, still warm from the sun or bake a pie with crisp apples your family picked that day, the food indeed nourishes the belly but it also feeds the soul.

Bluefish Vacation Rentals

Owners Erika and Jason Milovich

Being proactive and one step ahead of expectations is the Bluefish brand difference to delivering premier customer service on both sides of the vacation rental equation.

"It's all about commitment to the relationships," say owners Erika and Jason Milovich. "The more connected we are, the better we are at elevating the experience and meeting the personalized needs of our owners and guests." Over 16 years of excellence has made Bluefish the leading rental company in Harbor Country with the most repeat rental customers and home owner retention.

From charming beachside cottages to elegant lakefront estates, Bluefish presents a curated portfolio of over 100 vacation homes along the Lake Michigan shore and neighboring towns from St. Joseph to Michigan City.

The owners and their highly trained full-time staff are local enthusiasts who specialize in knowing every property and taking care of every vacation desire. From seamless booking to flawless check-in, every guest or owner is assured that all is prepared for a comfortable arrival. Vacations begin the moment you step in the door. Guests can relax knowing they'll find meticulous cleanliness, lights turned on, thermostat adjusted, towels set out, a fully stocked kitchen, essential household supplies, and even a lovely welcome gift.

A helpful concierge department can accommodate special vacation wishes like filling the fridge with groceries, ordering a catered meal, delivering a charcuterie board or firewood.

"We really care about clients and the fact that they want to come back to this place that we love and want to share," Erika explains. "We like to think we're helping to make memories one guest at a time."

A stress-free stay is always assured by Bluefish high-touch services, a feature-rich website, exclusive Guest Pass and 24/7 real-time access. "If anything is not up to expectations, you can always connect with someone directly and we will take care of it," says Jason.

Non-rental second home owners can now enjoy winters worry-free with Bluefish Property Management (BFPM), offering professional property care services during off season.

For 3 decades people have been coming to Sweethaven to create vacation memories they will cherish for a lifetime.

Both child and pet friendly, our fully furnished rental cottages accommodate 2 to 14 people, and are available for your getaway all season. Nestled in the heart of Harbor Country, with only 6 cottages on 9+ wooded acres, there is a feeling of spaciousness and tranquility that makes tightly wound grown-ups sleep like babies. Each cottage has its own unique look and location, but all have every amenity needed for a comfortable retreat.

The moss-covered paths beckon you to take a walk in the woods. The tree house, horseshoe pit and the volleyball court beg you to come and play. The screened porches, sunny decks and private hot tubs offer serene spots to just sit and rest.

All year long Sweethaven is where beach excursions begin, snowball fights breakout, and campfires happen.

BUILDING A LIFESTYLE

enhancing a lifestyle

Dear Properti Client,
We see you. Your second home is not an income property. It's where you make family memories, host friends, and entertain colleagues. It's where you retreat, slow down, float, breathe. Go ahead and make a sandcastle, take a photo, stay one more day.

We are peace of mind when you can't be there and personal assistance for when you can.

Wine, Beer & Spirits

Hickory Creek Winery

Adam McBride, Owner and Winemaker

Tucked into the rolling hills of the wine trail, sits a charming boutique winery offering distinctive hand-crafted small batch wines. Adam McBride, proud winemaker and owner of this hidden gem, presents a unique portfolio of traditional European-style wines. Crafted with close attention to quality and an old-world flavor profile, these exclusive wines tend towards more dry and off-dry tastes.

“We don’t do beer. We don’t do spirits. We don’t do hard cider. While some other wineries in the area may be branching out to offer these options, our only focus is on small production winemaking.”

Adam first “caught the wine bug” while stationed in a small winemaking village in the Riesling region of western Germany. Walking the vineyards and talking to the winemakers, he became fascinated with the winemaking craft and wine culture.

In 2017, McBride, a west Michigan native, looked to purchase a small scale winery in Southwest Michigan where the slope, sun and soil were ideal for the kind of winemaking he had in mind.

Inside the big red barn at Hickory Creek, the cozy tasting room offers full views to the barrel room. A tasting includes your selection of five wines uniquely served in glass carafes on authentic barrel stave flight boards.

Outside, guests can relax with their bottle, glass or flight on the large patio with comfy furniture, picnic tables and fire pit seating. Snacks and charcuterie plates are available, but you can also bring your own food, lawn chairs or picnic blankets, Kids and dogs are welcome too. Reservations are highly recommended.

McBride and his knowledgeable staff love talking about their exclusive small batch wines. Hand-crafted on premise, they artfully convert whole clusters of locally grown fruit, shepherding the entire process from grape to glass. “I’ve heard my staff tell our guests that If you like something, you might want to take a bottle with you, because these wines aren’t available for long and you won’t find them anywhere else.”

~ By Holly Shulman

The Frisky Frog

Owned by The late Bob Tibbles

1939-2021

If you love beautiful, creative or whimsical things for home and garden, you'll find your happy place at The Frisky Frog. It certainly was for its owner, the late Bob Tibbles, a beloved and long-time member of the Harbor Country Chamber. The Frisky Frog, a quaint and cozy vintage house turned one-of-a-kind store is filled from rooms to halls, to backyard with a treasure trove of indoor and outdoor living decor.

It's hard to take it all in. An ever-changing selection for gifting, entertaining, and decorating that includes glassware, Nora Fleming serving dishes, home accents, candles, and an extensive year-round holiday selection. Back in the kitchen you'll find tasty pantry treats like specialty sauces and salsas, dips, jellies, jams, teas, gourmet snacks, distinctive spices, seasoning mixes and greeting cards to make you smile. Plus Christmas never ends here. Find collectible favorites like Byers Carolers, or vintage and themed Santas by Karen Didion, plus a fine line up of German Incense Smokers. It's a wonderland of high quality and hand-crafted charm.

During spring, summer and early fall head out to the backyard that is alive with art and color. Find wind chimes, kinetic spinners, lawn ornaments, bird houses, pots, statuary, globes, wall signs, plaques and fountains.

Born in St. Louis, Bob was a lifelong florist in Missouri and Chicago. When Tibbles retired to Harbor Country decades ago he opened his first shop, the ever-popular Villager store in downtown New Buffalo. Over years of success and expansion his premier garden offerings began to outgrow that space. Then he had an idea for his second shop. "Originally the Frisky Frog was just going to be about garden, porch and patio," Bob explained. "But since we've grown, people really enjoy shopping all our other unique items and love discovering what's new."

To visit The Frisky Frog, take an easy 3 block walk from downtown, or you can park your car free across the street in the City Hall lot.

BEACH SAFETY TIPS!

Be aware of Rip Currents: Check riptide warnings at weather.gov/crh using 49117 and 49129 zip codes.

Know how to call for help: Call 911 for emergencies and 269-684-5274 for non-emergencies.

Know how to report your location: When using the road end beaches in Chikaming and New Buffalo Township, report the number of the nearest Blue Mile Marker and the name of the beach access point.

These markers are coordinated to the Berrien County 911 system. The New Buffalo Beach is the only beach staffed by lifeguards.

Be aware of water quality: E-coli counts in Lake Michigan fluctuate and water quality is monitored by the Berrien County Health Department. Beach closings and advisories are posted at deq.state.mi.us.

Take only memories, leave only footprints: Trash receptacles are available at all beaches. Please do your part to keep the beaches clean.

HARBOR COUNTRY LIVING

“I enjoy every aspect of the creative process, from concept and design to breaking ground and finishing details

AT YOUR SERVICE

Owner, Doug Nelson

At Your Service is a company of craftsmen dedicated to the art of building. Their quality, design and craftsmanship elevates functionality and inspiration, for residential and commercial projects.

For custom builder Doug Nelson, his business represents the lessons and values that he’s picked up throughout his entire life. His approach embraces the idea that work is not just about making a living but also making art. Nelson has enjoyed success in many other creative pursuits from filmmaking, music and television production, to art and photography.

After college, Doug got his California contractor’s license and started his own company in Los Angeles, building everything from commercial, residential custom homes to music studios and restaurants. He credits his grandfather for planting the seed. A Swedish immigrant, he taught Doug about what he calls “the New England ethic” as it applies not only to woodworking, but also to living and loving life. “I was 8 or 9 when he handed me a set of nail bags and taught me how to cut, dowel and peg, and to create dovetail joints,” he says. “While we were working, he would talk to me about the attention to detail needed to make a product that lasts, and how the spirit of the way we worked affected not only the product, but our life, too.”

Today, these valuable life lessons continue to inspire Doug and his team here in Michigan, as they bring their clients’ dreams to fruition. “From small additions to lakehouse, farmhouse and barn remodels to large commercial projects,” he says, “they all get the same love and attention to detail.”

At Your Service is a company of craftsmen who do it once, do it right, and stand by their work. “I enjoy every aspect of the creative process, from concept and design to breaking ground and finishing details,” says Doug. “It all connects and gives me a feeling of accomplishment when all the elements come together.”

Relocating

Relocating is a big move. We know you love Harbor Country® as a vacation destination, but what should you know as you go from part-time visitor to full-time resident? Here are a few things to know about Harbor Country®.

ONE PLACE, EIGHT DISTINCTIVE SPACES

Harbor Country® is comprised of eight small towns along the eastern shore of Lake Michigan; Michiana, Grand Beach, New Buffalo, Three Oaks, Union Pier, Lakeside, Harbert, and Sawyer.

Michiana

The Village of Michiana is approximately 0.37 square miles, and a 2019 census estimate reported a total population of about 181 people. The village may be small, but it is mighty pretty, and it's the perfect distance between the hustle and bustle of the big city and the quiet of a sleepy beach town.

Grand Beach

The idyllic arches that greet visitors and residents as they enter the Village of Grand Beach are a reminder of the stately beginnings of the Village. Grand Beach boasts beautiful beaches, a fantastic golf course, and a few Frank Lloyd Wright homes. With a population of about 314, you're sure to enjoy getting to know your neighbors.

New Buffalo

The City of New Buffalo is the most built up of the list, which means there are easy to access amenities. With a year-round population of just about 1700, the town fills up in the summer with out-of-town guests enjoying the public beach, copious dining and shopping options, and close proximity to vineyards, farms, hiking, biking and more. Year-round residents with kids enjoy National Blue Ribbon Award winning schools, and a small town feel.

Three Oaks

The third village on our list is Three Oaks. With an estimated year-round population of just about 1300, Three Oaks is a little less populated than New Buffalo. Just five miles from Lake Michigan, Three Oaks is a quaint village with lots of cool little places to eat, drink, shop, and explore.

Union Pier

Union Pier is located about five miles north of New Buffalo, and sits between Lake Michigan and the beautiful Galien River. Known for being home to St. Julian Wine Company, Michigan's longest running winery, Union Pier has also been recognized by Forbes (2020) magazine as one of "The Best Spots to Enjoy Michigan's Feast of Fall Foliage."

Lakeside

With just about 250 year-round residents, Lakeside is home to a very active homeowners association that puts on several events throughout the year. Close to the shores of Lake Michigan, Lakeside has an interesting trading history. Home to quaint antique and specialty shops, Lakeside is a great place to relax and unwind year-round.

Harbert

Harbert is one of those beach towns that if you blink you might miss it. Shopping, dining, relaxing, and beautiful scenery are just a few reasons that Harbert is a great place to live.

Sawyer

Last, but certainly not least, we round out our Harbor Country® list with Sawyer. Home to Warren Dunes State Park, a brewery, delectable restaurants and a year-round produce market. Sawyer has a small town feel with lots of amenities. Not far from New Buffalo, or St. Joseph, Sawyer living is just right.

Before relocating to an area, calling the Harbor Country Chamber of Commerce can give you a good sense of all the region offers. From real estate, to movers, to the spa treatment you'll need after coordinating your move, the Chamber has the resources you'll need to make your next adventure a smooth one.

Harbor Country® and Beyond

Harbor Country® traces its roots to the early days of the Potawatomi Tribes who gamed, fished and cherished the waters and woods of the area. But it was Cpt. Wessel Whittaker whose ship was forced to harbor in New Buffalo during a storm in 1834, who is credited with laying the foundation for the community that would become a vacation destination.

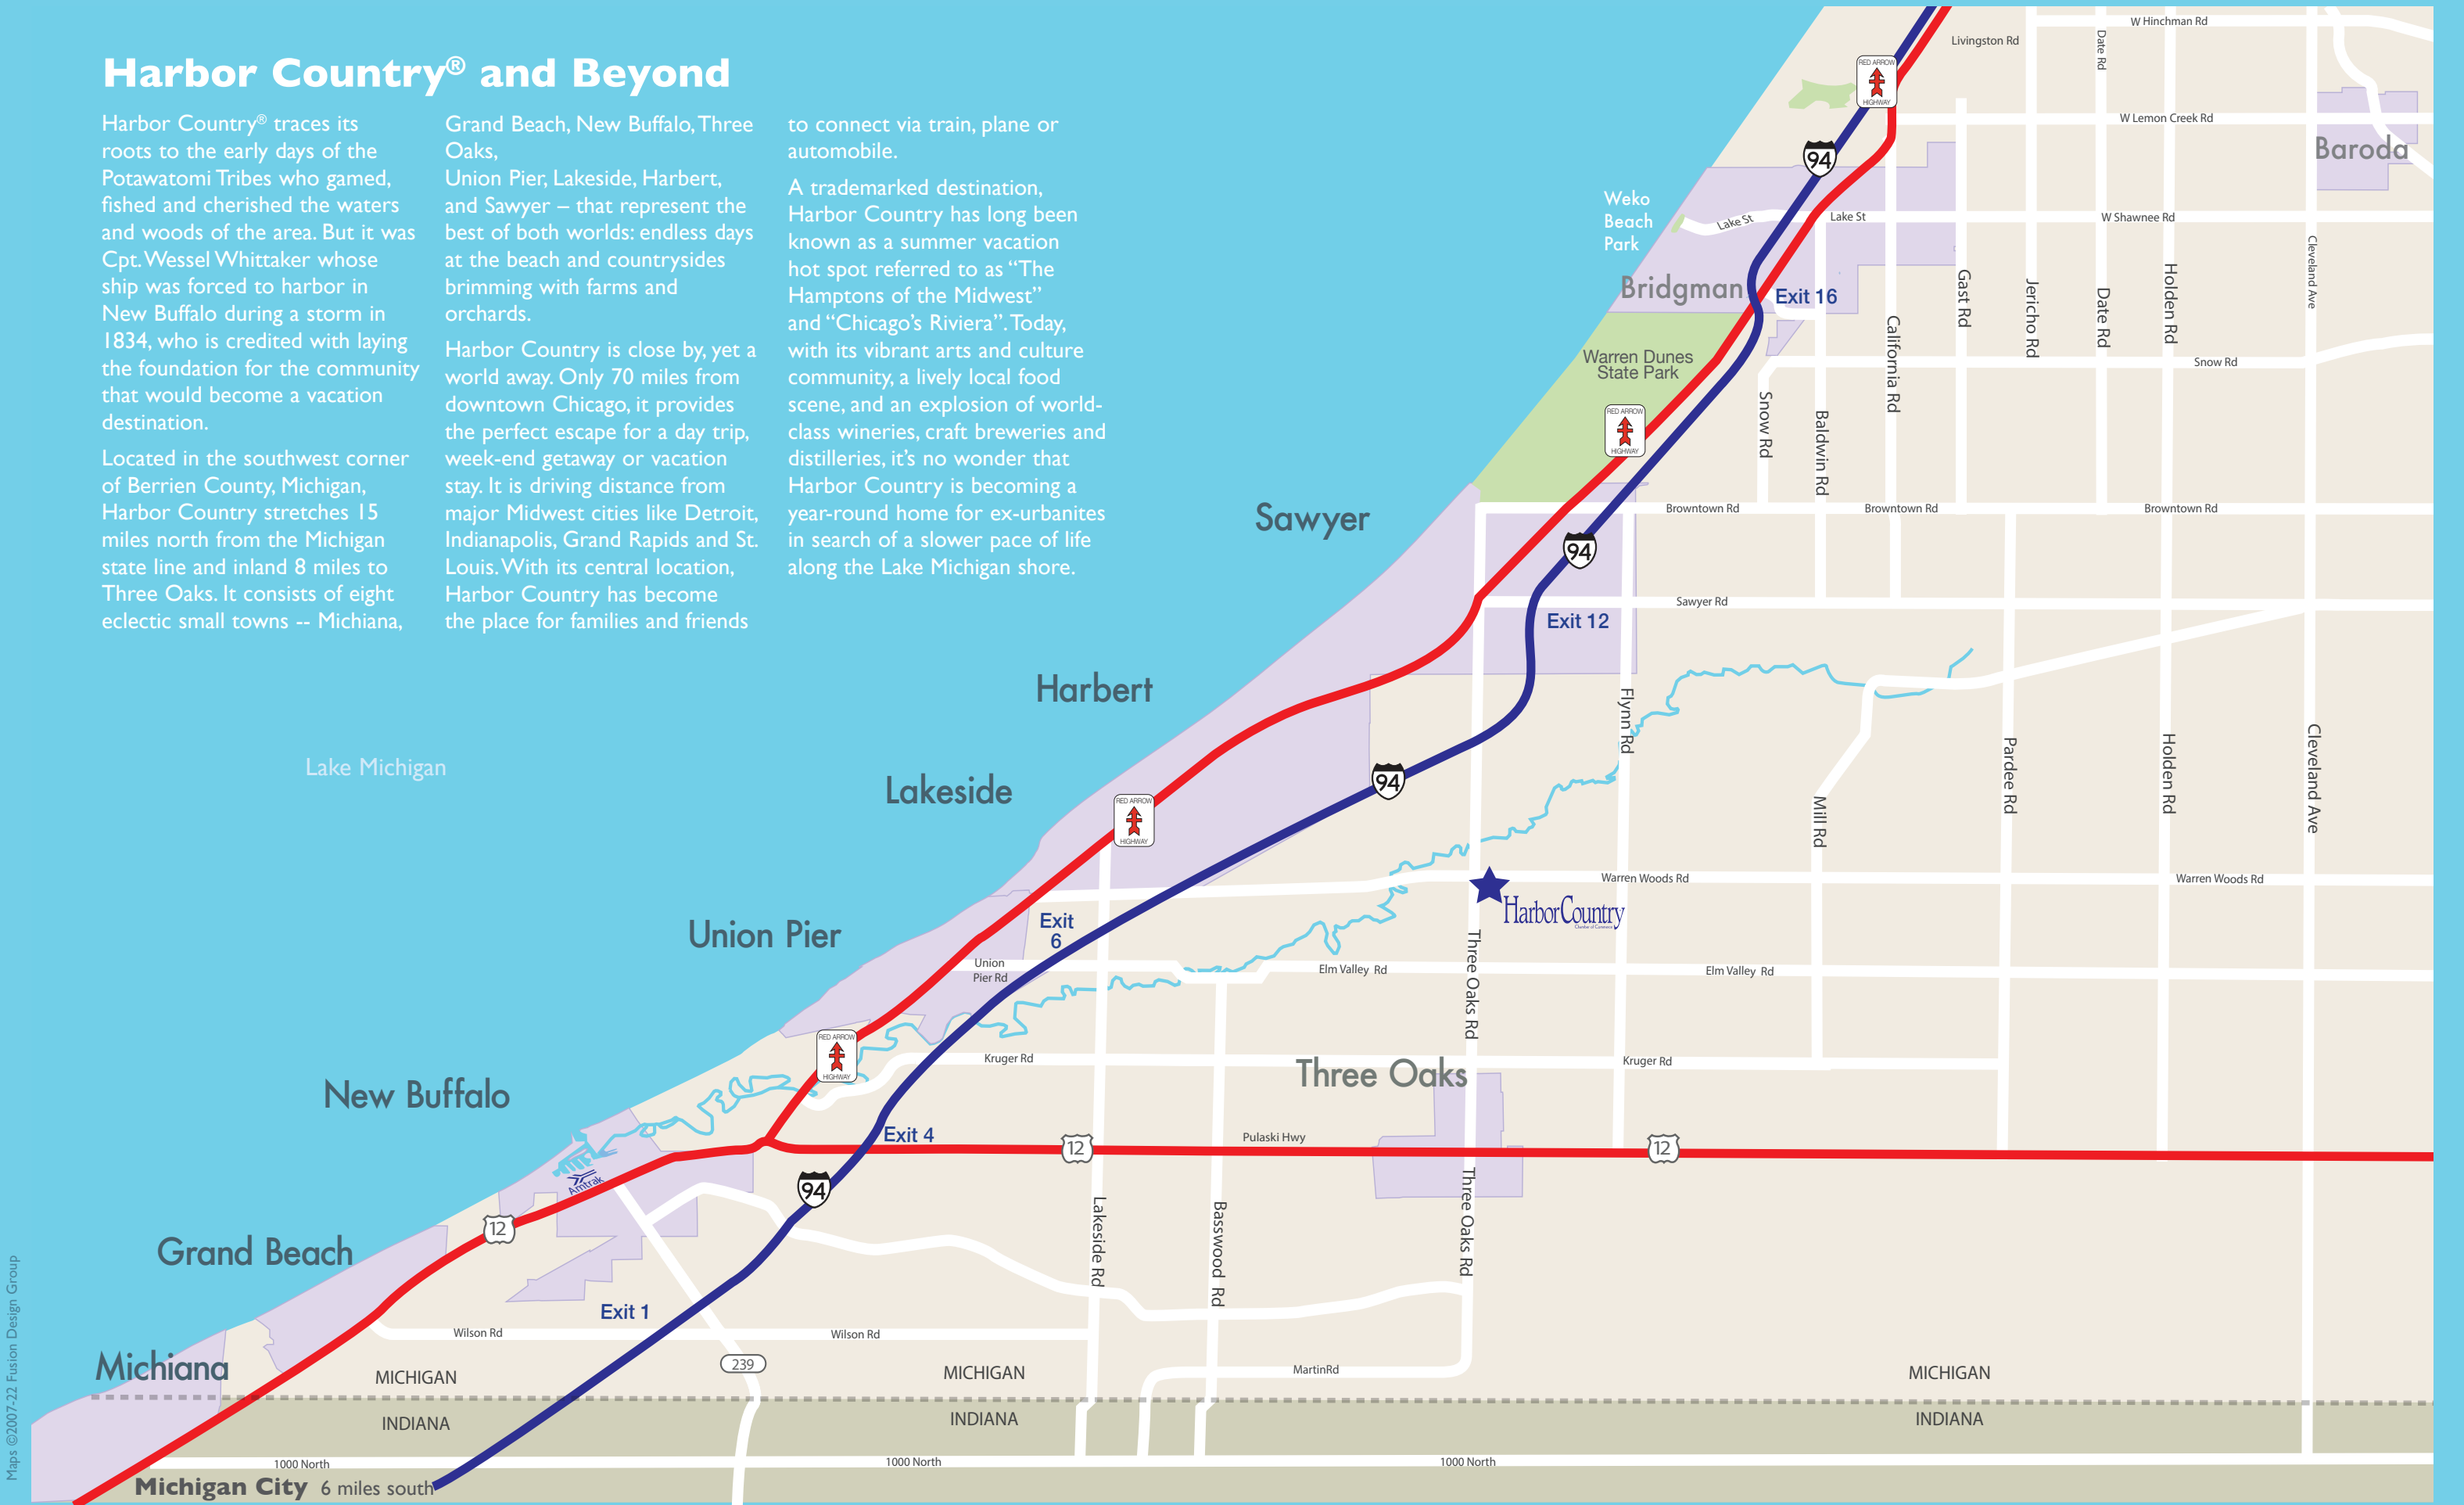

Located in the southwest corner of Berrien County, Michigan, Harbor Country stretches 15 miles north from the Michigan state line and inland 8 miles to Three Oaks. It consists of eight eclectic small towns -- Michiana, Grand Beach, New Buffalo, Three Oaks, Union Pier, Lakeside, Harbert, and Sawyer – that represent the best of both worlds: endless days at the beach and countrysides brimming with farms and orchards.

Harbor Country is close by, yet a world away. Only 70 miles from downtown Chicago, it provides the perfect escape for a day trip, week-end getaway or vacation stay. It is driving distance from major Midwest cities like Detroit, Indianapolis, Grand Rapids and St. Louis. With its central location, Harbor Country has become the place for families and friends to connect via train, plane or automobile.

A trademarked destination, Harbor Country has long been known as a summer vacation hot spot referred to as “The Hamptons of the Midwest” and “Chicago’s Riviera”. Today, with its vibrant arts and culture community, a lively local food scene, and an explosion of world-class wineries, craft breweries and distilleries, it’s no wonder that Harbor Country is becoming a year-round home for ex-urbanites in search of a slower pace of life along the Lake Michigan shore.

New Buffalo

New Buffalo is the gateway to Michigan and the cornerstone city of Harbor Country®. Its harbor boasts the largest number of slips on the sunset coast, a public boat launch, transient marina and large public beach – all walking distance from the downtown district. A variety of unique stores, eateries and lodging facilities line the streets. There is an Amtrak stop with three daily trains and shuttle service to the Four Winds Casino.

Grand Beach

The stately white gates of Grand Beach have welcomed visitors and Chicago politicians to the village since the 1900s. Initially developed as a resort area, Grand Beach is home to a public golf course, nearly 50 Sears & Roebuck cottages and three Frank Lloyd Wright homes. There is a small commercial district along U.S. Highway 12.

Michiana

The Village of Michiana is the southernmost town of Harbor Country® and one of the last areas in the region to be developed. Best known for its “Michiana” log homes, built into the dense woods that dot the shores of Lake Michigan, the village is primarily a quiet, residential neighborhood. The most often heard question is, “What stop are you at?” referring to the old bus route stations that still dot Lake Shore Drive.

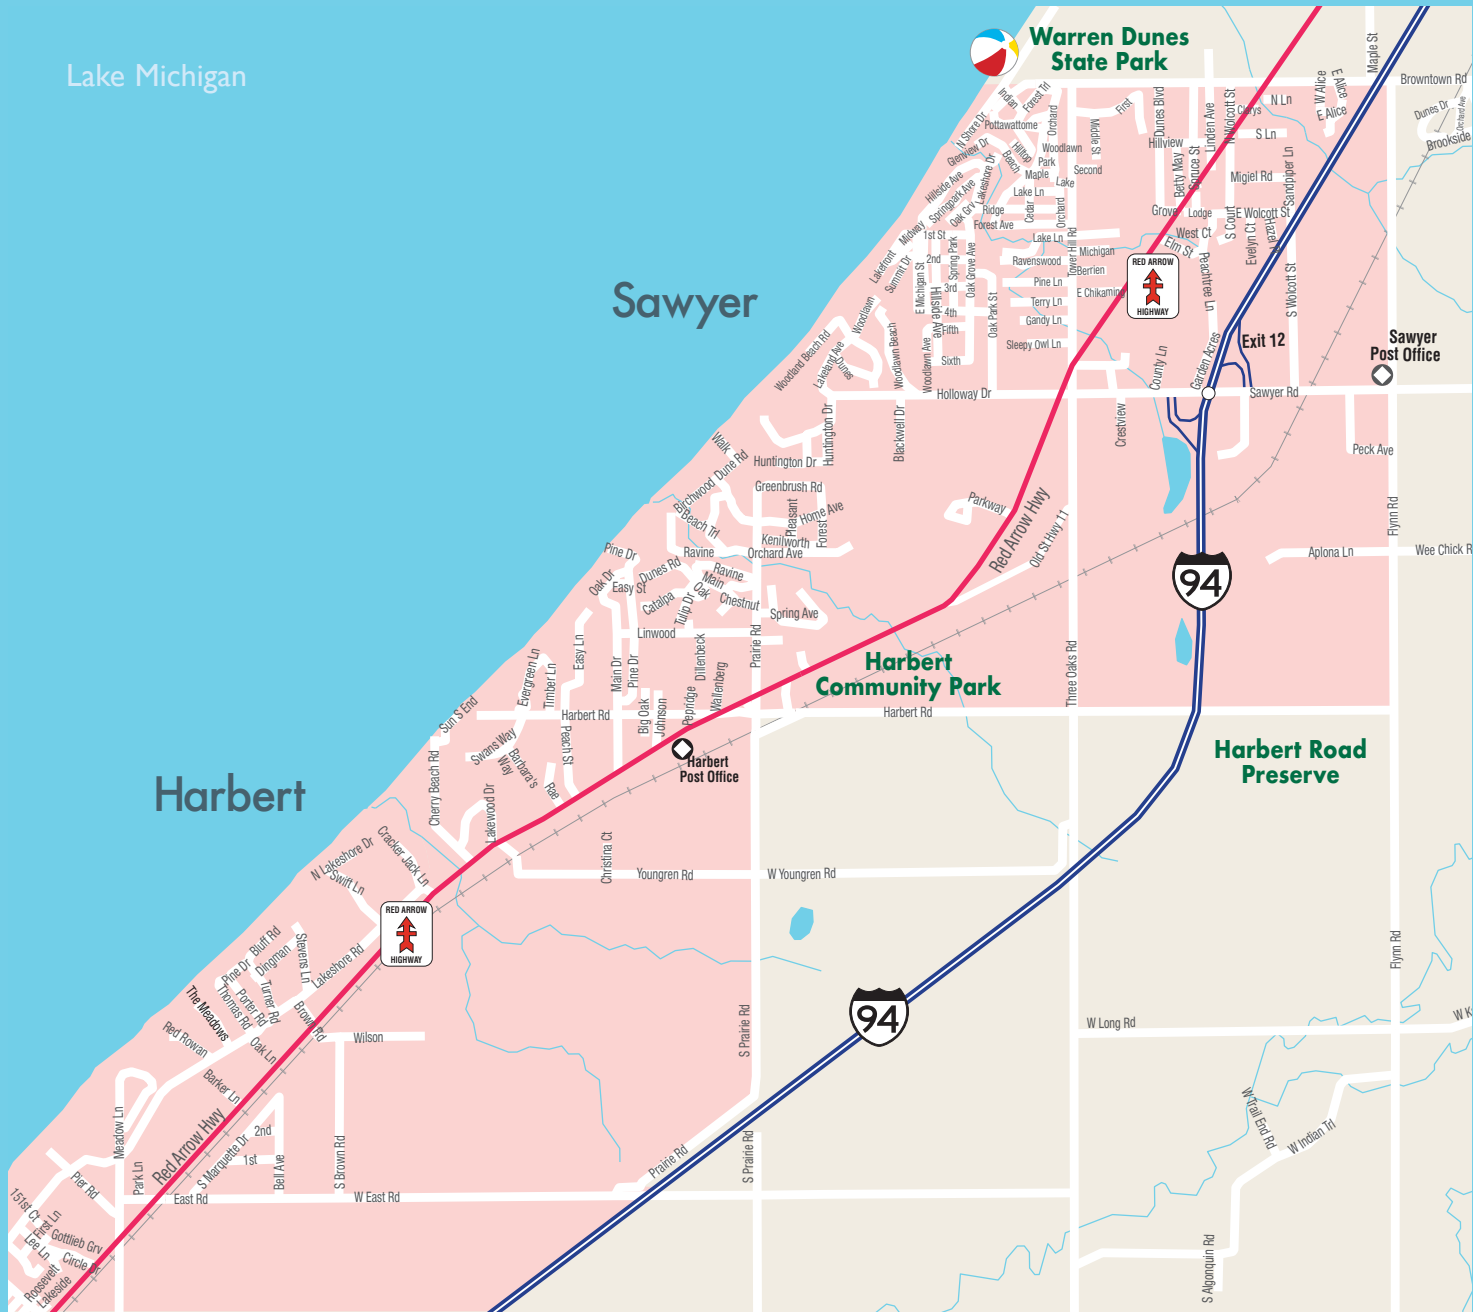

Union Pier

Four miles north of New Buffalo, Union Pier is a major vacation destination with a wide variety of places to stay — quaint Bed & Breakfasts, historic inns, vintage cottages and modern luxury homes. Named for one of the shipping piers used to transport timber to Chicago in 1870, the town has deep ethnic roots that are still visible today. Small, road-end beaches are walkable and bikeable as are numerous restaurants, shops, and bakeries.

Lakeside

The history of Lakeside comes alive at the Wilkinson Heritage Museum, home of the original 1854 trading post and at the Lakeside Inn, a state registered historic hotel. A strong sense of community is fostered by an active homeowners’ association that organizes an annual Memorial Day parade and Ice Cream Social. In recent years, Lakeside has attracted a number of design studios that accompany antique shops and specialty stores along Red Arrow Highway.

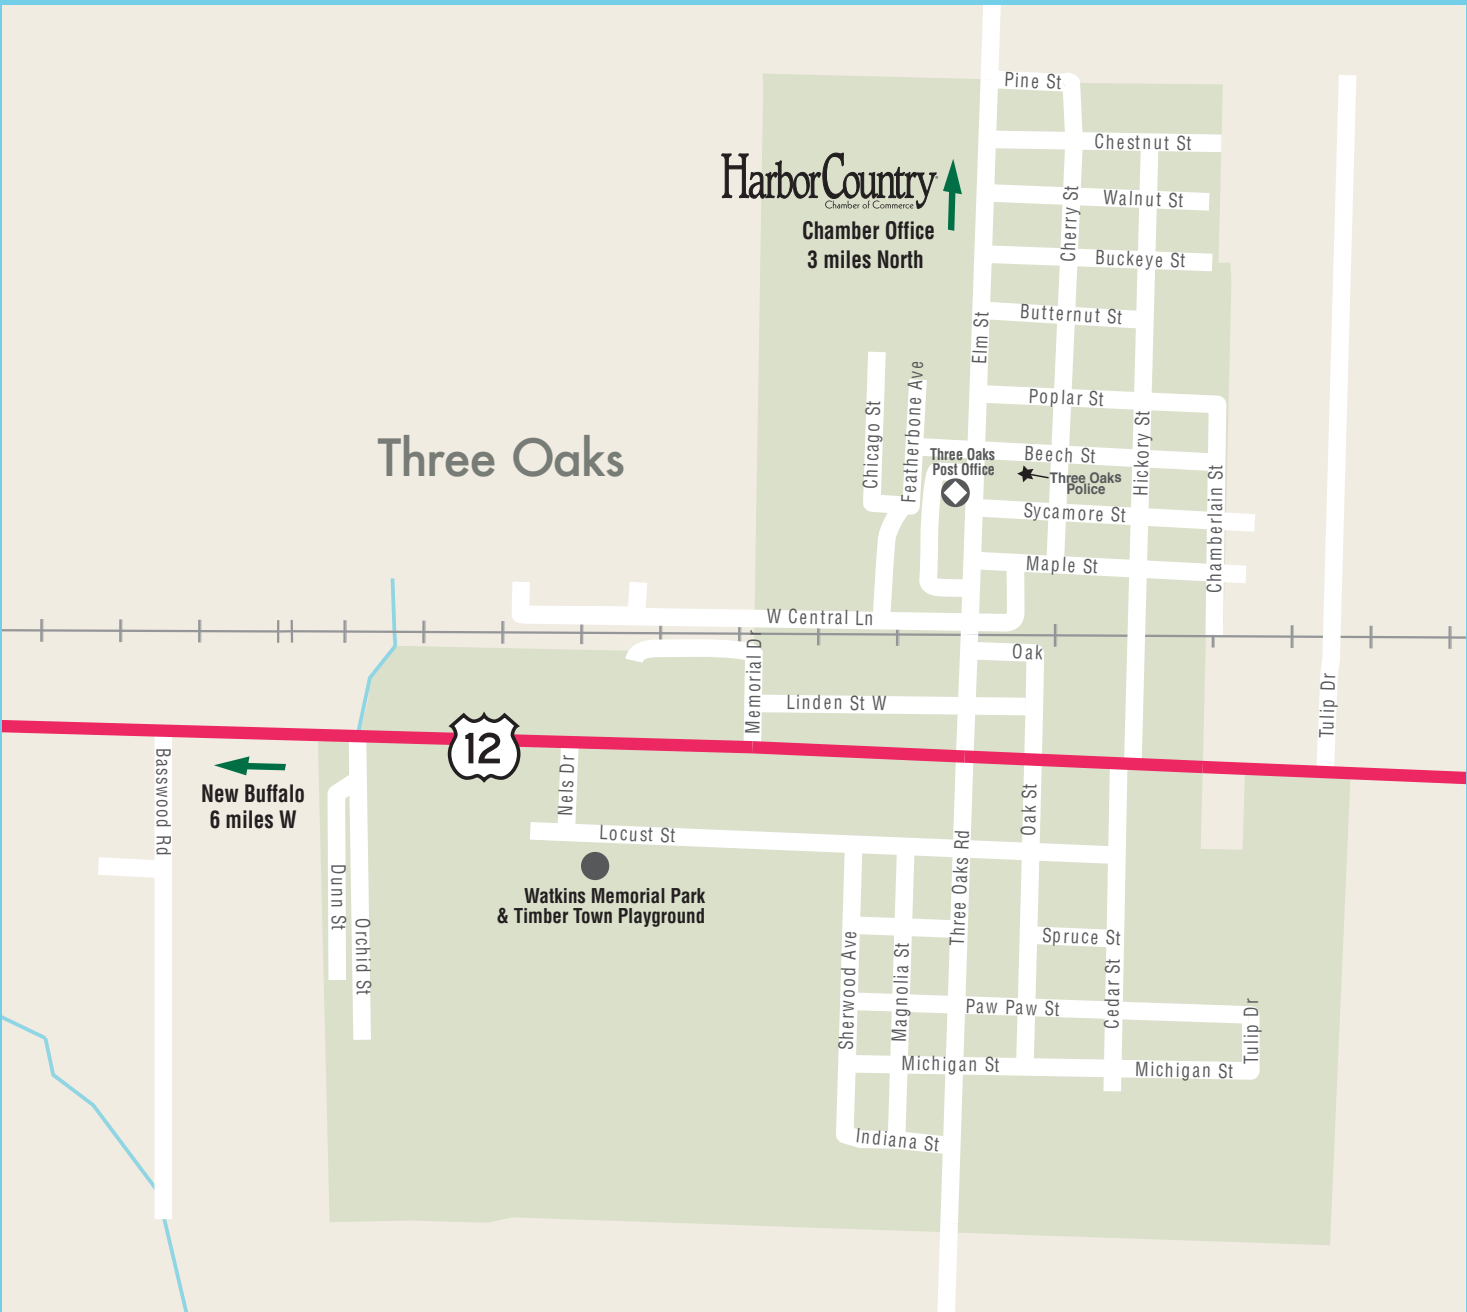

Harbert

Harbert has changed since the days Carl Sandburg and his goats roamed its wooded lanes, but has lost none of its appeal. The influence of the Scandinavian families lives on at several Swedish influenced businesses, which co-exist with restaurants, antique stores and furniture galleries. Harbert Community Park is popular with visitors and residents alike with its playgrounds, dog park and new Carl Sandburg memorial.

Sawyer

The northernmost community of Harbor Country®, Sawyer, is home to one of Michigan's top destinations – Warren Dunes State Park. The Park offers acres of dunes, campgrounds, and a dedicated dog-friendly beach. Downtown Sawyer has grown tremendously over the past few years. It is home to a local craft-brewery, a destination garden center, restaurants, art galleries, and an old fashioned hardware store.

Three Oaks

The Village of Three Oaks is the arts and cultural center of Harbor Country® with a live performance theater, fine arts cinema, art galleries, eclectic shops, and one of Michigan's largest organic distilleries located on a historic Main Street. The Village hosts the world's largest Flag Day parade and the state's biggest bicycle event, the annual "Apple Cider Century" which brings more than 5,000 cyclists to enjoy 100 miles of Harbor Country® trails.
