"Life consists of a series of moments strung together. As a professional photographer for over 20 years, my goal is to make images that tell a story and provide documentation of those times. My career has been focused on photographing places whether man-made structures or the wonders of the natural world, I am fascinated and inspired by spaces. I spend most of my days photographing real estate and architecture; shooting over 7000 homes, most within the Harbor Country area. My hope is that when someone is viewing my images is that they evoke emotion and transport the viewer back to their own memories; whether it be at Grandma's house when they were a child, their favorite roadtrip, or a moment when sitting on the shores of Lake Michigan soothed their soul. We have strong connections to the places we inhabit and those that we visit, they are part of our history. I strive to make sure those locations and moments are visually preserved."

Erin's work was published in USA Today, the Chicago Tribune, Crain's Chicago, book covers, travel guides, and various other online and print works. She also participated in many art shows and has had work hanging in multiple galleries.

She is a FAA licensed drone pilot as well as a professional photographer, and is currently a board member on the New Buffalo Fine Arts Council.

SAWYER HIGHLANDS

CONVERGE COMMUNITY CHURCH

Worshipping Around The Word Of God

Sawyer Highlands Church had simple beginnings in 1952 but as it grew, it became known as a place of worship for all ages, with a vibrant youth ministry, a missions program, and a God-centered vision of life. From the earliest days, learning what the Bible has to say about God and his people has been at the center of its mission. In 2012, the church launched a second campus in New Buffalo, Converge Community Church. "We chose the name Converge because it demonstrates what we have experienced in the Gospel," says Lead Pastor Jeff Dryden. "In the church people from all kinds of backgrounds "converge" to become one spiritual family." Sunday services are at 10 a.m. in Sawyer and 11 a.m. in New Buffalo. "We welcome all who want to join us worshipping around the Word of God," says Pastor Rob Nash.

Proporti HOME CONCIERGE

Brianne Schmidke, Owner

You’ve dreamed of all the memories you’ll make while relaxing at your own getaway home in Harbor Country. But often the reality of property upkeep prevents you from being present for all the moments that matter.

Perhaps you’d like to head straight to the beach, stop at the farmers market, or wander the wine trail. But instead, you have to deal with a plumbing repair, clean the gutters or mow the lawn.

Brianne Schmidke’s vision is to bring non-rental homeowners a home watch and concierge service that allows them peace of mind while away, and burden-free time to fully enjoy themselves while here.

A trained Proporti Home Watch professional will conduct a routine checklist on indoor and outdoor spaces. They’ll flag any issues that might arise and offer reliable reputable resources to remedy maintenance, repair or security problems quickly.

Home visit schedules can vary in frequency from weekly to twice per month with services that can include:

- Checks for exterior damage, pest infestations and security tampering
- Home systems, A/C, heat and appliance monitoring
- Plumbing maintenance and sprinkler system management
- Remove junk mail/flyers, retrieve packages
- Start vehicles

Home Watch Client memberships are fully customizable. Options range from full-time year-round retainers to monthly, seasonal or vacation service.

Concierge add-on services are also available including:

- Pre-arrival welcome; patio set up, blinds open, appliances ready and pantry stocked
- Post-departure: trash out, thermostat set, security system armed, inflatables stored, vehicles washed, and refrigerator cleaned out
- Housekeeping, landscaping, lawn care, snow removal or handyman services
- General or subcontractor oversight
- Mail courier, package pickup, forwarding
- Meet vendors for cable, internet, appliance repair
- Pool/spa maintenance
- Pay utilities
- Personal shopping or errands
- Event planning

After meeting with Brianne to determine your homes’ needs, her team will act as a single point of contact with professional service providers and handle all scheduling and invoicing.

She and husband Joshua Schmidke have built relationships in Southwest Michigan for over twenty years through a combination of custom home construction and hospitality.

Second homeowners, snowbirds, busy parents, senior citizens, and business travelers all rely on Brianne’s personalized high touch service. Her team takes great pride in the trust clients give Proporti to expertly and intuitively care for their homes.

A Delicious Reason to Eat In Season.

by Lindsay Navama

Harbor Country is famous for its beautiful Midwest beaches, but few know that this delicious region of Southwest Michigan is also located in one of America's fruit belts and rated second in the nation for the diversity of produce grown. Fruit has been grown in Harbor Country's Berrien County since it was settled in 1829, but at that time most growing was done for personal use. In the 1850's Michigan lost many peach trees after a few extremely frigid winters. However, due to Berrien County's location next to Lake Michigan, the peach trees here still thrived. This realization inspired the county to begin cultivating peaches and other produce to sell commercially in Chicago and beyond. With access to twenty percent of the world's fresh water supply and unusually fertile soil, it's not surprising that Berrien County has become one of America's top growing regions.

From May through November, roadside farm stands, local grocery stores and u-pick farms brim with the season's bounty. Come spring, look for the rhubarb, asparagus, spinach and peas. By June, broccoli, strawberries, cherries, and cucumbers have usually come online. The sun drenched months of July, August and September deliver an edible rainbow of fruits and vegetables from tomatoes, blueberries, peaches, and plums, to okra, beets, beans and peppers. Once autumn arrives, hit the apple orchards, stroll the grape vineyards, pick some pears, and be sure to find a pumpkin patch before October 31st.

Whether you're visiting or lucky enough to call Harbor Country home, seize the opportunity to eat what's in season by using this simple produce chart. When you experience a sweet, juicy summer tomato, still warm from the sun or bake a pie with crisp apples your family picked that day, the food indeed nourishes the belly but it also feeds the soul.

Wine, Beer & Spirits

HICKORY CREEK

From grape to glass, these world class wines are artfully shepherded through the entire process on premise.

Hickory Creek Winery

Adam McBride, Owner Winemaker

A unique stop on the wine trail features a distinctive portfolio of small batch wines, hand crafted in traditional European taste profiles that cater to dry and off-dry palates. From grape to glass, these world class wines are artfully shepherded through the entire process on premise.

At this hidden gem winery you'll discover cabernet franc, chardonnay, merlot, pinot gris, pinot noir, riesling, seyval blanc, chambourcin, grüner veltliner, traminette and viognier all crushed, crafted, bottled, corked and labeled by hand, inside the big red barn at Hickory Creek.

Owner Adam McBride and his friendly knowledgeable team enjoy sharing their small batch expertise. Jasmine Parkinson, talented new assistant winemaker and recent graduate of Lake Michigan College's viticulture and enology program, is one of only a handful of female winemakers in our state. Manager Jeffrey DeAngelis has been a fixture at Hickory Creek Winery since 2009 as an integral part of its history and evolution.

Limited production means a focus on quality over quantity. This allows the best producing grapes of the season to become the best tasting wines. It also allows for ultimate creativity. The team has recently crafted a five varietal bordeaux blend, some special orange wines and a Michigan GSM (grenache, syrah and mourvèdre blend) which they'll be excited to pour as soon as it's ready.

"When a wine comes out, that's it and it's done" says Jasmine. "If you taste something you like, it's best to take some home that day, because it won't be available for long and you won't find it anywhere else." DeAngelis adds.

The cozy tasting room offers full views to the barrel room. A flight includes your selection of five wines uniquely served on reclaimed barrel stave boards. When time allows, Jasmine enjoys taking people back to show them the barrels and explain the winemaking process.

Guests can relax outside with their tasting flight, bottle, or glass on the large patio. Comfy furniture, picnic tables and fire pit seating overlook rolling hills and a growing vineyard. The newly planted vines should produce fruit for this vintage in 2023. Snacks and charcuterie plates are available, but you can also bring your own food, lawn chairs or picnic blankets. Kids and dogs are welcome too. Group reservations are highly recommended. Return often to see what's pouring.

Lodging

Chateau Sullivan,
Sawyer

Large group celebrations and getaways are made even more special when everyone can stay together in a luxurious dream home, located in the heart of all the vacation fun.

Cassidy Sullivan had this in mind when she purchased, redesigned, beautifully decorated and appointed every aspect of Chateau Sullivan. The country-like estate in downtown Sawyer provides lush accommodations that comfortably sleep up to 18 people for weddings, family reunions, retreats, or any type of large group vacation.

The one-of-a-kind home features 8 bedrooms and 7 baths. There are many private and group spaces for lounging and relaxing indoors and out. Special features include an indoor heated pool and hot tub spa, big airy screened porches, cozy nooks, patios and balconies. There are multiple options for large group dining both indoor and out. There's even an outdoor cooking kitchen. The spacious three acre property includes lush landscaped grounds with a peaceful English garden and small vineyard.

The home is a canvass for expressing Sullivan's own creative aesthetic that embodies a fresh mix of French provincial, country cottage, vintage charm and modern comfort. Unexpected details lend unique character.

There's a butlers pantry, an original vintage refrigerator, cupboard shelves lined with china platters, interesting architectural artifacts, art, and lighting.

Cassidy purchased the property in late 2021 and embarked on a labor of love to renovate, design, decorate, furnish and appoint the home with an eclectic mix of authentic pieces. Born and raised in St Joseph MI, she was inspired by her parents artistic hobby of finding unique furniture for painting and refinishing "before it was even a thing."

An old photo of the original home reveals it was once a small hotel. Originally built in the later 800s. Decades of renovations, remodels and additions have transformed it into this dreamy, romantic estate.

"It just makes my heart happy to host wonderful family vacations and group events," says Cassidy who has many future plans. "I'm always changing things. I have so many more ideas that race through my head. She's a work in progress. I'm going to keep adding to her," she says joyfully.

If you have a wedding, special celebration or group getaway in your plans, book now for weeks, weekends and holidays.

HARBOR COUNTRY LIVING

The Pizzo Group

Owner, Jack Pizzo

You can restore your property back to the way nature intended and enjoy a breathtaking landscape of Midwest beauty. When you transform your land into a thriving environment for native plants, flowers, trees, grasses and shrubs you'll enjoy an abundant diversity of colors, scents, sounds, wildlife and inspiring views.

Invite Jack Pizzo to walk with you and discover the natural ecosystems that are present on your piece of land. "As an ecologist I see your landscape from horizon to horizon. I'll show you what you have, what it was originally, and what it could be."

Pizzo lives to share his deep appreciation, respect and passion for how nature works. His mission is to put nature back together on your land. Once the environment responds, an explosion of self sustaining natural diversity will spring to life.

Don't ask the Pizzo Group to plant anything not native to the area. Their vision is to heal your land and bring it back into natural balance. By identifying and eliminating invasive species, overgrown brush or excessive shade, the proper conditions can be restored. Native plants can pop up or be reintroduced to flourish.

"Nature doesn't lie. The land tells us what to do. You just take the bad parts out and put the good parts back. As native plants are established, every flower becomes a seed producing machine, bringing with it the birds, butterflies, insects and pollinators that keep putting down more seeds. Then it gets dense and you're basically getting free plants every year."

Although they've won 170 awards for their work, Pizzo says what he loves most is seeing people enjoying nature. "Almost every one of the people I walk with acts like a child in nature. I love I to point out the patterns that are lost in the chaos. Suddenly they see songbirds, butterflies, woodpeckers, flowers... the life on their property."

"We're not garden landscapers. From the edge of the lawn or patio, all the way to the horizon is where we work."

Pizzo's experts can help you restore any size piece of land from one acre to a thousand, from the lakeshore to the deep woods, to the open prairie to the wetlands. They can provide anything from assessment to planning and design, restoring, planting and maintaining your land's new natural beauty.

If you're buying a new property or building anew, you might consider a pre-purchase or pre-construction assessment. The Pizzo Group can collaborate with your architect, engineer or builder to help develop site plans that maximize your desire to enjoy nature.

I am incredibly fortunate to have the opportunity to work and live in the community where I grew up. I love southwest Michigan! It is the perfect place to raise a family, to work and to spend your retirement years along the beautiful lakefront.

My wife and I have six children, and we all truly enjoy the outdoors. From camping, to nearly all team sports, we enjoy opportunities to get outside and have fun.

An ideal client experience is having the opportunity to understand your financial goals and dreams. We evaluate your portfolio, determine your cash needs, evaluate your current insurance needs, and understand your estate and legacy considerations. From there can build a financial strategy that maps out the process needed to maximize your assets within your risk threshold in a tax efficient way. We will also build a communication plan together for how often you would like to talk. My goal is to guide you through years up to and through retirement.

Relocating to Harbor Country

Relocating is a big move. We know you love Harbor Country® as a vacation destination, but what should you know as you go from part-time visitor to full-time resident? Here are a few things to know about Harbor Country®.

ONE PLACE, EIGHT DISTINCTIVE SPACES

Harbor Country® is comprised of eight small towns along the eastern shore of Lake Michigan; Michiana, Grand Beach, New Buffalo, Three Oaks, Union Pier, Lakeside, Harbert, and Sawyer.

Michiana

The Village of Michiana is approximately 0.37 square miles, and a 2019 census estimate reported a total population of about 181 people. The village may be small, but it is mighty pretty, and it's the perfect distance between the hustle and bustle of the big city and the quiet of a sleepy beach town.

Grand Beach

The idyllic arches that greet visitors and residents as they enter the Village of Grand Beach are a reminder of the stately beginnings of the Village. Grand Beach boasts beautiful beaches, a fantastic golf course, and a few Frank Lloyd Wright homes. With a population of about 314, you're sure to enjoy getting to know your neighbors.

New Buffalo

The City of New Buffalo is the most built up of the list, which means there are easy to access amenities. With a year-round population of just about 1700, the town fills up in the summer with out-of-town guests enjoying the public beach, copious dining and shopping options, and close proximity to vineyards, farms, hiking, biking and more. Year-round residents with kids enjoy National Blue Ribbon Award winning schools, and a small town feel.

Three Oaks

The third village on our list is Three Oaks. With an estimated year-round population of just about 1300, Three Oaks is a little less populated than New Buffalo. Just five miles from Lake Michigan, Three Oaks is a quaint village with lots of cool little places to eat, drink, shop, and explore.

Union Pier

Union Pier is located about five miles north of New Buffalo, and sits between Lake Michigan and the beautiful Galien River. Known for being home to St. Julian Wine Company, Michigan's longest running winery, Union Pier has also been recognized by Forbes (2020) magazine as one of "The Best Spots to Enjoy Michigan's Feast of Fall Foliage."

Lakeside

With just about 250 year-round residents, Lakeside is home to a very active homeowners association that puts on several events throughout the year. Close to the shores of Lake Michigan, Lakeside has an interesting trading history. Home to quaint antique and specialty shops, Lakeside is a great place to relax and unwind year-round.

Harbert

Harbert is one of those beach towns that if you blink you might miss it. Shopping, dining, relaxing, and beautiful scenery are just a few reasons that Harbert is a great place to live.

Sawyer

Last, but certainly not least, we round out our Harbor Country® list with Sawyer. Home to Warren Dunes State Park, a brewery, delectable restaurants and a year-round produce market. Sawyer has a small town feel with lots of amenities. Not far from New Buffalo, or St. Joseph, Sawyer living is just right.

Before relocating to an area, calling the Harbor Country Chamber of Commerce can give you a good sense of all the region offers. From real estate, to movers, to the spa treatment you'll need after coordinating your move, the Chamber has the resources you'll need to make your next adventure a smooth one.

Harbor Country® and Beyond

Harbor Country® traces its roots to the early days of the Potawatomi Tribes who gamed, fished and cherished the waters and woods of the area. But it was Cpt. Wessel Whittaker whose ship was forced to harbor in New Buffalo during a storm in 1834, who is credited with laying the foundation for the community that would become a vacation destination.

Located in the southwest corner of Berrien County, Michigan, Harbor Country stretches 15 miles north from the Michigan state line and inland 8 miles to Three Oaks. It consists of eight eclectic small towns -- Michiana, Grand Beach, New Buffalo, Three Oaks, Union Pier, Lakeside, Harbert and Sawyer – that represent the best of both worlds: endless days at the beach and countrysides brimming with farms and orchards. Harbor Country is close by, yet a world away. Only 70 miles from downtown Chicago, it provides the perfect escape for a day trip, week-end getaway or vacation stay. It is driving distance from major Midwest cities like Detroit, Indianapolis, Grand Rapids and St. Louis. With its central location, Harbor Country has become the place for families and friends to connect via train, plane or automobile.

A trademarked destination, Harbor Country has long been known as a summer vacation hot spot referred to as “The Hamptons of the Midwest” and “Chicago’s Riviera”. Today, with its vibrant arts and culture community, a lively local food scene, and an explosion of world-class wineries, craft breweries and distilleries, it’s no wonder that Harbor Country is becoming a year-round home for ex-urbanites in search of a slower pace of life along the Lake Michigan shore.

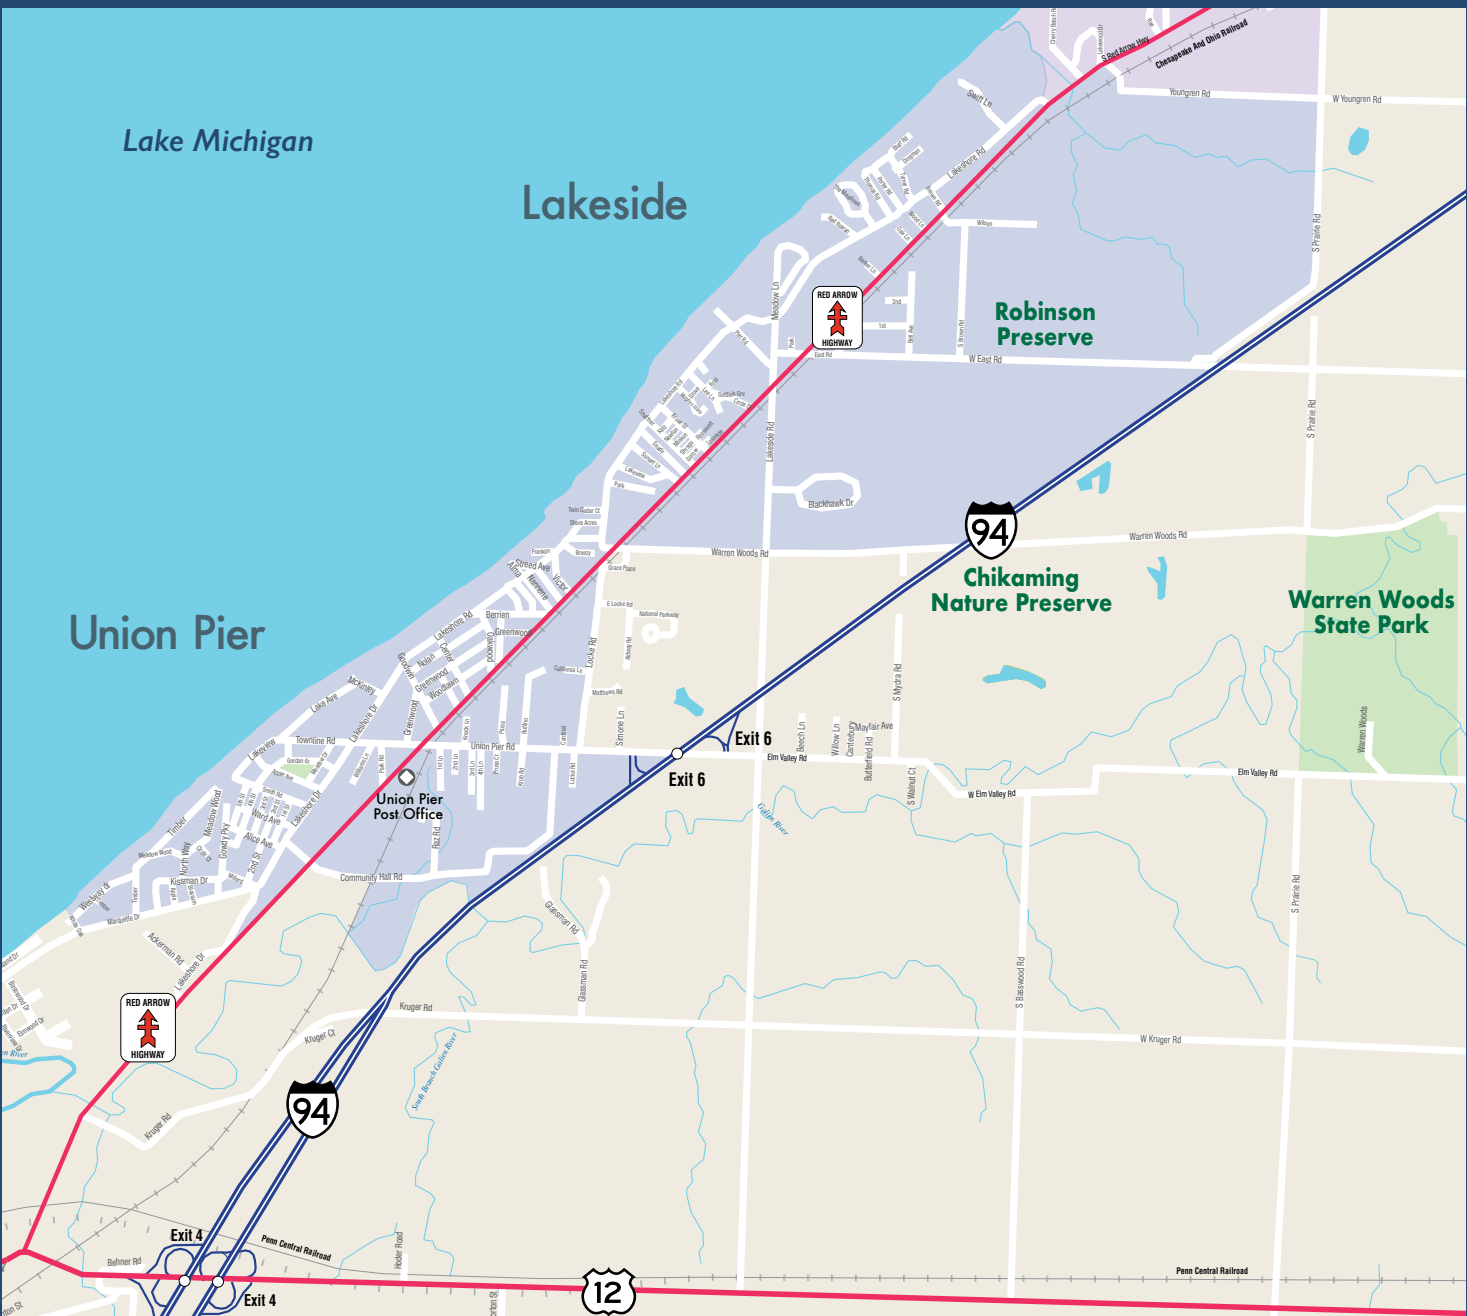

New Buffalo
New Buffalo is the gateway to Michigan and the cornerstone city of Harbor Country®. Its harbor boasts the largest number of slips on the sunset coast, a public boat launch, transient marina and large public beach – all walking distance from the downtown district. A variety of unique stores, eateries and lodging facilities line the streets. There is an Amtrak stop with three daily trains and shuttle service to the Four Winds Casino.

Grand Beach
The stately white gates of Grand Beach have welcomed visitors and Chicago politicians to the village since the 1900s. Initially developed as a resort area, Grand Beach is home to a public golf course, nearly 50 Sears & Roebuck cottages and three Frank Lloyd Wright homes. There is a small commercial district along U.S. Highway 12.

Michiana
The Village of Michiana is the southernmost town of Harbor Country® and one of the last areas in the region to be developed. Best known for its “Michiana” log homes built into the dense woods that dot the shores of Lake Michigan, the village is primarily a quiet, residential neighborhood. The most often heard question is, “What stop are you at?” referring to the old bus route stations that still dot Lake Shore Drive.

Union Pier
Four miles north of New Buffalo, Union Pier is a major vacation destination with a wide variety of places to stay — quaint Bed & Breakfasts, historic inns, vintage cottages and modern luxury homes. Named for one of the shipping piers used to transport timber to Chicago in 1870, the town has deep ethnic roots that are still visible today. Small, road-end beaches are walkable and bikeable as are numerous restaurants, shops, and bakeries.

Lakeside
The history of Lakeside comes alive at the Wilkinson Heritage Museum, home of the original 1854 trading post and at the Lakeside Inn, a state registered historic hotel. A strong sense of community is fostered by an active homeowners’ association that organizes an annual Memorial Day parade and Ice Cream Social. In recent years, Lakeside has attracted a number of design studios that accompany antique shops and specialty stores along Red Arrow Highway.

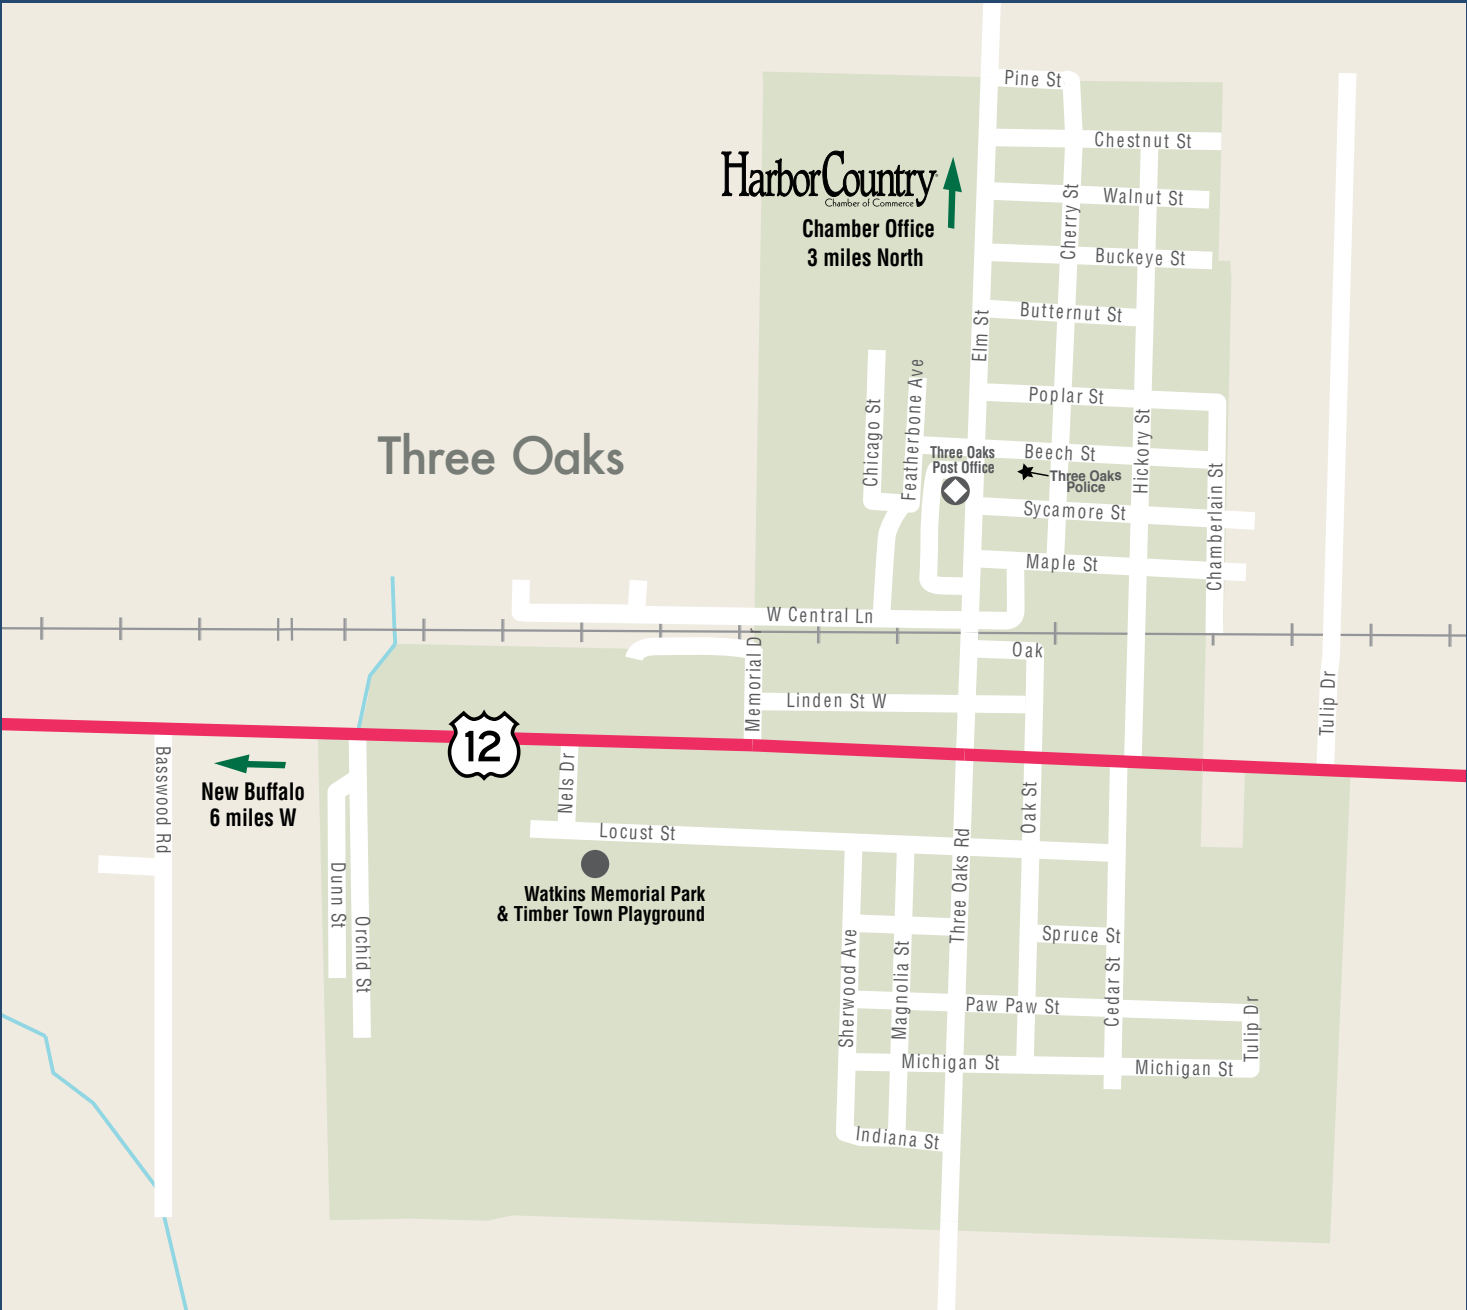

Harbert

Harbert has changed since the days Carl Sandburg and his goats roamed its wooded lanes, but has lost none of its appeal. The influence of the Scandinavian families lives on at several Swedish influenced businesses, which co-exist with restaurants, antique stores and furniture galleries. Harbert Community Park is popular with visitors and residents alike with its playgrounds, dog park and new Carl Sandburg memorial.

Sawyer

The northernmost community of Harbor Country®, Sawyer, is home to one of Michigan's top destinations – Warren Dunes State Park. The Park offers acres of dunes, campgrounds, and a dedicated dog-friendly beach. Downtown Sawyer has grown tremendously over the past few years. It is home to a local craft-brewery, a destination garden center, restaurants and art galleries.

Three Oaks

The Village of Three Oaks is the arts and cultural center of Harbor Country® with a live performance theater, fine arts cinema, art galleries, eclectic shops, and one of Michigan's largest organic distilleries located on a historic Main Street. The Village hosts the world's largest Flag Day parade and the state's biggest bicycle event, the annual "Apple Cider Century" which brings more than 5,000 cyclists to enjoy 100 miles of Harbor Country® trails.
