Things To Do

ACORN THEATER

What was once a featherbone corset factory at the turn of the 20th century, is now home to The Acorn, a collective and creative nucleus for performers, residents, and visitors, alike. Since its debut as a theater in 2003, this Harbor Country landmark offers a culturally vibrant platform for legends, fast-rising regional talent, and for local singer-songwriters to springboard their careers.

If you've experienced a show at The Acorn, you, no doubt, appreciate the bond that emerges between the performer and the audience. Nikki Gauthier, Acorn's Artistic and Creative Director, describes, "Each and every show is an experience. A one-of-a-kind moment where you are celebrating the artistry in a setting that is so up-close and personal that it gives you goosebumps." With its warm, eclectic vibe and its intimate capacity of 300, the Acorn allows for the audience to become a part of the show.

In addition to over 150 live performances scheduled for 2025, their popular annual events and community programs will also dot the calendar. From their Singer-Songwriter Competition and Midwest Made Summer Concert Series to their free programs such as the Dramatic Arts Camp for kids, The Acorn thrives on embracing the local art scene. "We want to showcase the spirit of the Acorn by extending the artist ecosystem," encourages Ashley Magnus, Executive Director. "By providing paid opportunities to local artists, free programs for children, and enticing donor programs, we are embracing the future of our youth and our community. Our mission is to maintain the local art landscape as well as the local commerce for generations to come." Offering support through the love of live music is a great way to become a part of the local art scene. Ashley suggests getting involved, "Our donor membership program, Acorn Insiders, provides exclusive benefits and invitations to events year-round."

Clearly, the Harbor Country community has been placed center stage by the hands of The Acorn. From open-mic nights to collaborations with other local nonprofits, the theater continues to show up for its neighbors. In addition to the talent who perform onstage, perhaps those making the magic backstage also deserve a round of applause.

The Acorn is located at 107 Generations Drive in Three Oaks. To view upcoming events or to purchase tickets, visit acornlive.org or call 269-756-3879. The Acorn is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.

Museums

New Buffalo Railroad Museum 530 S Whittaker St, New Buffalo, 269-469-8010, new-buffalo-railroad-museum.org

The Region of Three Oaks Museum 5 Featherbone Ave, Three Oaks. The Region of Three Oaks Museum features exhibits that bring local history to life. There’s the story of EK Warren and Featherbone, which turned Three Oaks into a fashion world capital for a time. There are displays on century-old glamor resort hotels in Lakeside, Union Pier, and Grand Beach; a 130-year old camera and tripod, and an array of early photos and movies of the area and its people. Take a trip down memory lane, viewing hats that adorned local heads through the decades. New for 2025 are exhibits on local doctors from as far back as the frontier days, a kitchen of World War II vintage, and artifacts from sawmills and grain mills, the area’s first industries. Along with exhibits, the museum offers brief documentaries for viewing on site, including a look at famous second-home owners in Harbor Country, the making of the movie Prancer in the area in 1989, the Pokagon Band of Potawatomi, and the Apple Cider Century bike fest. Admission is free, though a $3 donation is encouraged. 269-336-9688, regionofthreеоaksmuseum.com

FUN FACT:

Crinoid Fossil Beads are a fossilized stem of a crinoid, a marine plant. The fossils, generally a centimeter or less in diameter, tend to be a cylinder with a small hole, resemble unstrung beads. These 400 million year old fossils are abundant along the shores of Lake Michigan and perfect for making a handmade necklace.

RISING KITES

Danielle Grandholm

There's a coffee shop in downtown Bridgman that goes above and beyond the cup of joe. What started as a non-profit encouraging hope and support for parents caring for a child with Down Syndrome, has since expanded to Rising Kites Coffee Shop, a welcoming place that employs people with disabilities.

Rising Kites was launched by Danielle Grandholm and her husband, Matt, in 2021 after they experienced an at-birth diagnosis of Down Syndrome when their daughter, Sammie, was born. Four years later, they have a joyful, warm, and inviting space for the community to come together. "We knew that someday we wanted to employ people with Down Syndrome. What initially started as a five-year plan in 2023 accelerated very quickly into a one-year plan after a grant was gifted to help us expand," states Danielle. "The community has been so kind and have come out of the woodwork supporting us at every turn." The Grandholm's have their sights set on another goal for 2025, operating a flower farm just down the road from Bridgman which will also employ those with disabilities. "Starting in Spring 2025, the farm will allow for us to sell floral arrangements at the coffee shop as well as offer flower subscriptions and workshops throughout the summer."

Successful collaborations have been established with other non-profits who are also looking to raise awareness; Creative Companions, a working environment that encourages learning and growth; merchandise that is sourced from Spectrum Designs, an autism employment non-profit for teens and young adults; and Grace Place Art, a project aimed towards turning artwork into an opportunity for empowerment.

The coffee shop is also available to rent and can accommodate up to 80 guests. "We've cultivated a warm and welcoming space for events," states Danielle. "It comes with both an indoor space and a fenced outdoor area, ideal for any kind of celebration."

The year ahead calls for more fundraising efforts, events, and workshops. To lend your support, stop in for a mocha, a flavored iced latte, a hot cup of cocoa or a bag of Rising Kites Brew whole beans (roasted in Sawyer by Infusco Coffee.) Rising Kites is located at 4158 Lake Street in Downtown Bridgman and is 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Visit risingkites.org to learn more, volunteer, or donate.

Community Event: For those looking for support or to meet other moms in the disability community, Rising Kites hosts Moms Morning Out. See their website for dates and times. Childcare is included and free of charge.

MARIANI LANDSCAPE

Through thoughtful design and strategic curation, Mariani Landscape transforms outdoor spaces into living works of art. Utilizing a variety of plants, water features, hardscapes, lighting, and more, the team of architects and construction pros create captivating landscape environments with creative results.

What started as a landscape maintenance company in 1958 by Vito Mariani, an immigrant from Italy, is now one of the leading landscape companies in the Midwest. Collaborating with local contractors, irrigation, lighting and maintenance crews, projects vary in scale, from small patch designs to large, whole property installations. Carrie Woleben-Meade, Mariani's Design Principal, has seen a lot of change since she came on board 33 years ago. "Tastes have evolved, clients are more knowledgeable, and people value their outdoor spaces more than ever with a greater acceptance of natural landscapes." She's there through the entire process from start to finish and considers it an honor to work with her clients. "Our intent is to create timeless landscape designs where outdoor living spaces become an everyday extension of a home, and more importantly, blend into the intentions behind the design."

The team at Mariani work closely with their clients and consider every aspect of the space while tapping into innovative ways to make the most out of sun and shade. "We cast a wide net and see what's possible," expresses Woleben-Meade. "Our goal is to add features that promote daily engagement. Be it plant selection, patio layout, fireplaces, pools, porches, or outdoor kitchens, all components need to be design forward while effortlessly blending into the natural surroundings."

What starts as an idea and emerges into an outdoor masterpiece is what fuels the creators and caretakers at Mariani Landscape. Whether you're looking to remodel or get a fresh new start, one thing that is clear are the memories that will be shared.

Mariani Landscape serves Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin. Based in Bridgman, they provide year-round maintenance to Harbor Country. To learn more or to schedule a consultation, visit MarianiLandscape.com or call 847-306-8106.

Dining & Food

PostBoy

Relaxed, unfussed, ridiculously good food is the name of the game here. Past the incredible design and great ambiance is an impressive menu with serious eats. If a few words could describe the food culture at PostBoy, “community,” “intentional” and “fresh,” come to mind. To cap off the menu, the short rib, fried chicken sando, and Slagel Farms burger, are just a handful of the delectable entrée selections. And if appetizers are more your thing, they have you covered there too. You simply can’t go wrong. All this mouthwatering rhetoric takes place in a relaxed laid-back setting enveloped in soft angles, light wood tones and color pops of mint and blush.

Launched in November 2024, this contemporary American restaurant is the brainchild of Chef/Restaurateur James Galbraith, and entrepreneur, Ben Holland. These two “work husbands,” are no strangers to Harbor Country; Holland has been visiting since childhood and Galbraith grew up in Benton Harbor. Luckily for us, they created a culinary gem.

The restaurant, located in downtown New Buffalo, pays homage to the adventurous spirit of Captain Whittaker, his crew, and a schooner named PostBoy. Today, PostBoy, the restaurant, sits in the heart of downtown New Buffalo on Whittaker Street. “From the menu to the overall look, everything was intentional, and every detail thought out,” states Holland. The establishment offers an inviting atmosphere where cozy vibes mingle with friendly, knowledgeable wait staff. Behind the showpiece bar infused with beach-glass, you’ll find a fantastic selection of beer, wine and unique cocktails, all served from bartenders that truly know their stuff. The equally cool outdoor patio is an attraction unto itself with modern fire pits and furnishings.

If you’re looking for a lively Harbor Country hotspot, this is where you want to be. New Buffalo’s newcomer, PostBoy, is heavenly. Holland and Galbraith have created a dining experience that celebrates a unique spin on familiar classics while promoting inclusivity within the community. The only potential stressor? Deciding what to order.

When asked about goals for PostBoy, Holland expresses, “We hope to remain a key part of the community for decades to come.” Creative, welcoming, and downright delicious, this place is setting sail to becoming a Harbor Country favorite. Captain Whittaker would be proud.

PostBoy is located at 207 N. Whittaker Street in downtown New Buffalo. For reservations, visit postboynb.com or call 269-767-8269.

New for 2025: A star-studded guest chef collaboration series including James Beard award-winning chefs and MICHELIN-starred restaurants, Cocktail Making Classes, Dim Sum-Inspired Specials, Kids Cooking Classes, Movie Nights, Live Music and more. Follow @PostBoyNB on socials for up-to-date info.

Wine, Beer & Spirits

Dablon Vineyards & Winery

Just as Southwest Michigan delivers a multitude of activities for locals and visitors alike, so too does it provide the terrain to create award-winning wines that have put Dablon Vineyards & Winery on the map.

Perched atop one of the highest points in the region, the vineyard spans seventy-five acres, forty-five of which are planted with vines. The vibe at Dablon is sophisticated chic with an industrial edge, while showcasing sweeping views of the vineyard from the tasting room and outdoor patio. Providing an overall immersive experience, Dablon offers multiple tastings, including barrel samples, vertical tastings, and curated wine flights. Named #8 tasting room in the country by USA Today and #1 by Midwest Living, Dablon Vineyards & Winery, in Baroda, is giving Napa a run for its money.

Dablon co-owner, Brody Sheldon, praises the nature of this region, "This area possesses uniquely fertile soil. Lake Michigan moderates the climate which allows us to grow a wide variety of grapes." Brody's father, William Schopf, purchased the property in 2009 and turned it into a vineyard. "Each and every grape is estate grown, harvested by hand and the wine is produced and bottled onsite, resulting in 17 vibrant and distinctive varietals," states Brody. "What started as an investment property became a love story between my dad, nature, agriculture, and wine."

Over 500 wine club members get the "insiders only" perks to Dablon's premier vintage wines and new releases, as well as special pricing on wine, tastings, cases, and more. In addition to their wine club events, the team also host numerous events year-round, including themed tastings, wine release parties, private and signature reserve tastings in the barrel room, live entertainment and the popular Secrets of the Cellar. New for 2025, Dablon will be partnering with local chefs to curate food and wine pairing events. The Tasting Room is also available for private rental to host events.

Amazing wine in Southwest Michigan? The answer is yes. The unified and enthusiastic team at Dablon make first class wine from first class grapes and it's crystal clear that their love of wine runs deep.

Dablon is open 363 days a year and is located at 111 W. Shawnee Road in Baroda. Wine can also be purchased at retailers and restaurants throughout Harbor Country and beyond. Visit dablon.com for more information.

2025 Events include: 10-Year Anniversary Celebration on May 31st • Annual Harvest Party on September 21st • 2nd Annual Vineyard

Send-Off: A Toast to the Season on November 15th • First Friday Food Trucks • Live Music Year-Round

LODGING

Juniper Holiday + Home

With over 17 years of hospitality under her belt, Valerie Gangas, Founder and CEO of Juniper Holiday + Home, is no stranger to curating the ultimate guest experience. What started with managing fourteen rental properties three years ago has since grown to nearly 100 design-forward, luxury vacation homes throughout Harbor Country.

Juniper Holiday + Home rentals are designed to accommodate romantic getaways, family vacations and larger groups (allowing for a family reunion), an intimate wedding or a New Year's Eve celebration. Reservations can be made directly through the Juniper website, where guests can also tap into their concierge service, featuring a wide variety of personalized services, ranging from grocery shopping to in-house massages, private chefs to a guest favorite, a full-service margarita bar.

And it doesn't stop there. Juniper's guests can tailor their holiday with a lake view, hot tub, swimming pool, game room, firepit and the like. For those with little ones, many rentals come equipped with bunk beds, cribs, and pack and plays. For guests wanting to bring their "fur babies," dog biscuits from Froelich's are provided and instantly allow for Fido or Fifi to feel right at home.

Built on genuine hospitality, the top-notch team at Juniper also provide well-crafted recommendations, such as where to find a stellar cup of coffee, the perfect summer cocktail, or crave-worthy whitefish.

As their website declares, "Our Juniper guidebook will lead you to all the local treasures, but don't miss chatting with other local folks."

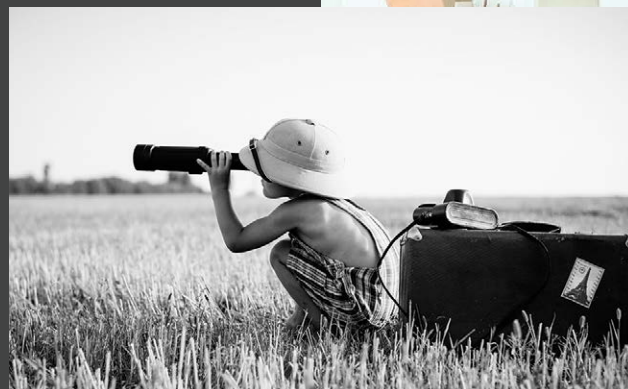

As for Valerie's favorite local establishments... Bentwood Tavern. Cherry Beach. Skip's Farmers Market. Red Arrow Roasters. P. & E. Bottle Shop. To name a few.

She says, "There's something magical about Harbor Country - that rare blend of creative energy and quiet elegance. And even though it's just a quick drive from Chicago, it feels worlds away from the "big city" hustle. In Harbor Country, life naturally slows down. That's what captured my bohemian soul, and that's exactly what we create at Juniper Holiday + Home, where laid-back luxury finds its soul."

From annual family vacations, a week away with the girls (or boys), and everything in between, Juniper Holiday + Home welcomes their guests to experience a luxurious retreat, while being enveloped in the laid-back coastal vibe that is Harbor Country.

As for plans to expand Juniper Holiday + Home? Valerie winks, "Always."

To browse properties and to make a reservation, visit their office in Union Pier, find them online at juniperholidayandhome.com or call (269) 442-1237.

HARBOR COUNTRY LIVING

Pizzo & Associates

Established in 1988 by Jack Pizzo, Pizzo & Associates was founded to preserve and restore Mother Nature's intent. Homeowners, businesses, non-profits, and more have experienced the Pizzo commitment to rejuvenate and sustain the beauty of the backyard. From permitting and design, installation and maintenance, the team at the Pizzo Group create solutions to help with an assortment of ecological restorations.

"The purpose of habitat restoration is to create sustainable landscapes that allow nature to flourish in the environment it was intended for," expresses Pizzo. "Invasive species can be fought, and we help replace the bad stuff with the good stuff." Their mission is not just a promise, but comes with a passion to educate and inform others on the importance of native planting.

"It's a process of replace and repeat," states Pizzo. "It isn't difficult to maintain, it just needs some attention." Native plants can take up to three years to begin to thrive after seeding and typically up to five years for large prairies. Using plugs instead of seeds greatly expedite the process and can sometimes reduce the time in half. But the wait is well worth the reward. "We provide long-term cost saving options by reducing the need for mowing, irrigation, and fertilizers while increasing the value to pollinators, wildlife, and overall land values."

Born into a family of green thumbs, Pizzo continues the lineage of love for Mother Nature. "I love seeing that a-ha moment when clients notice the return of songbirds and butterflies." From forest preserves to private estates, and everything in between, Pizzo is rejuvenating and sustaining the beauty of the planet for generations to come. Be it a big or small project, it's a step in the right direction in getting back to our roots. Literally.

The main objective for Jack Pizzo? "I want to help put wildlife back where it belongs. Mother Nature can do it all. I'm just her tool."

The company is headquartered in Leland, Illinois, with additional locations in Three Oaks, Michigan, and two more locations in Illinois. The team will be opening an online retail store for native plugs to consumers in 2025/2026 as well as adding a nursery in Three Oaks, Michigan.

Coast In to Harbor Country®

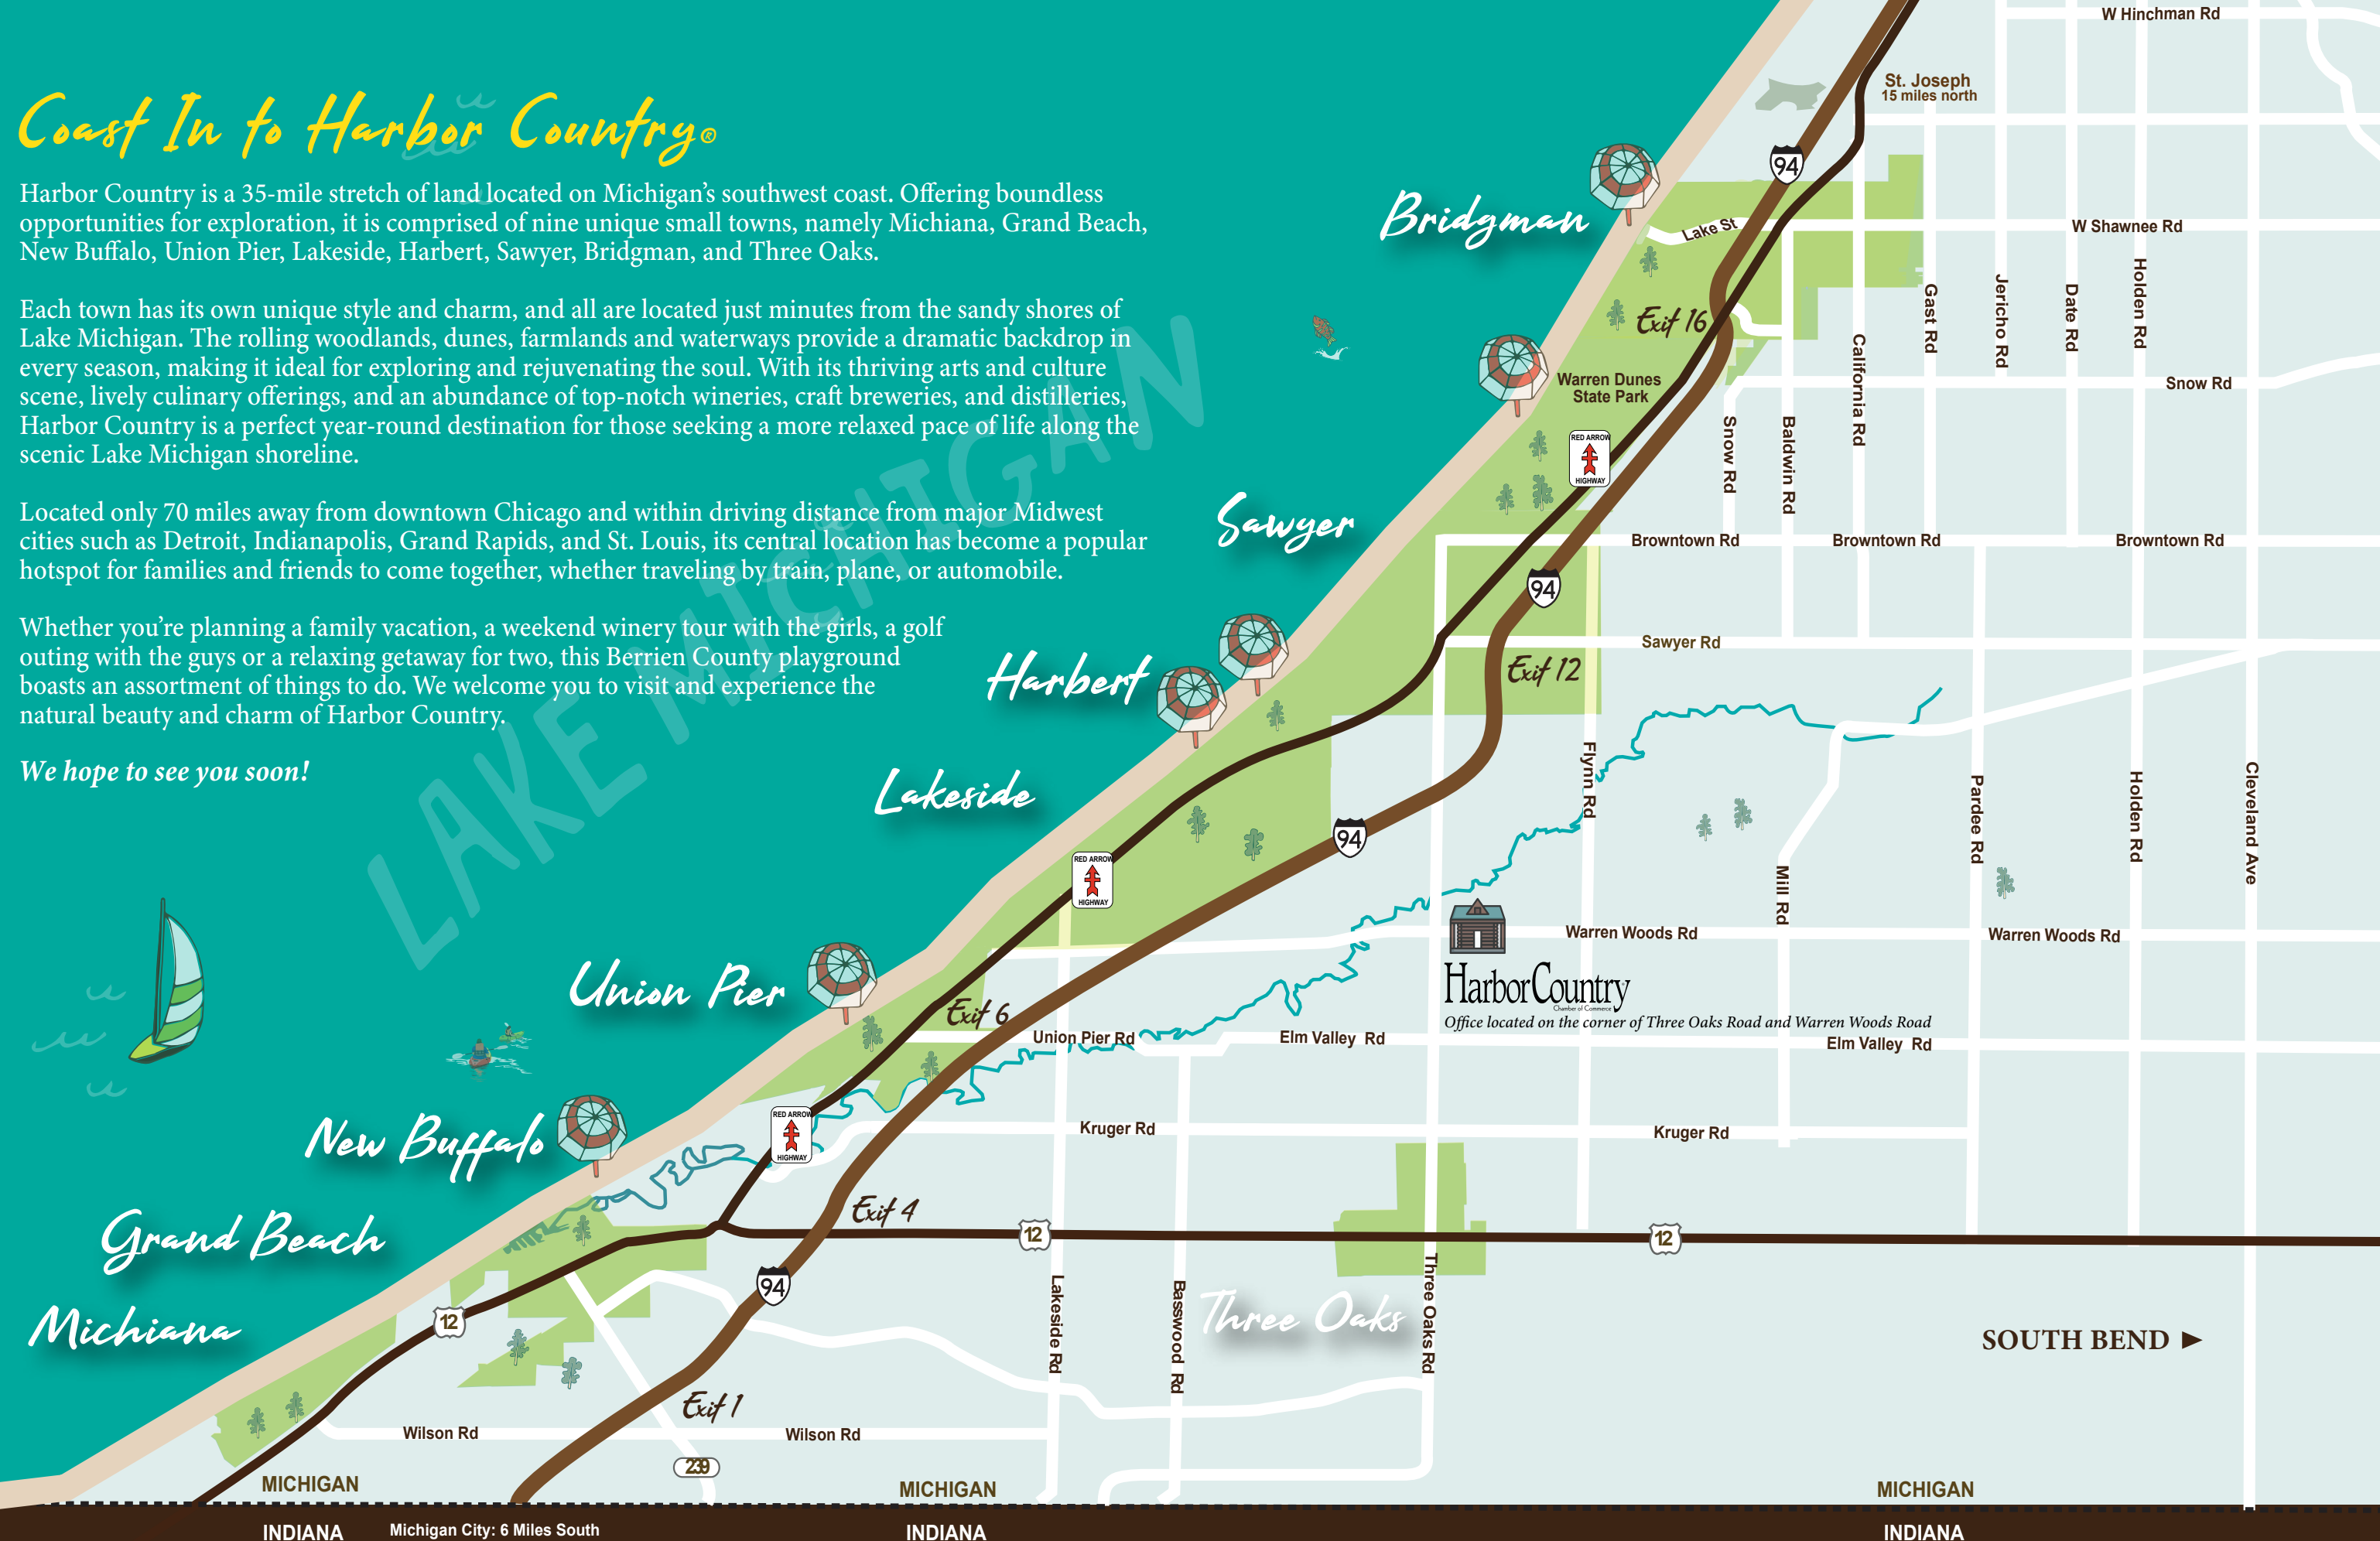

Harbor Country is a 35-mile stretch of land located on Michigan's southwest coast. Offering boundless opportunities for exploration, it is comprised of nine unique small towns, namely Michiana, Grand Beach, New Buffalo, Union Pier, Lakeside, Harbert, Sawyer, Bridgman, and Three Oaks.

Each town has its own unique style and charm, and all are located just minutes from the sandy shores of Lake Michigan. NEW BUFFALO

Exit 1. New Buffalo. Home to the State of Michigan Welcome Center.

Harboring sights, sounds, and activities aplenty, New Buffalo is a picturesque beach town located just steps from the beach on the Lake Michigan Coast. Here, you'll discover a vibrant downtown district that boasts a variety of dining, lodging, boutique shops and a convenient Amtrak pit stop.

Over a thousand boat slips dot the New Buffalo harbor complete with a public boat launch and a transient marina. Kayaks and paddleboards weave along the Galien River waterway offering aquatic enthusiasts a wonderful way to get up-close and personal with nature as sailboats set sail for a picture-perfect sunset.

Various housing options are available including luxurious coastal homes, in-town homes with walkable sidewalks, and rural residences on the outskirts.

Head west on Harbor Country Drive (aka Whittaker) to catch the first sight of Lake Michigan's very own sunset coast.

MICHIANA

The southernmost beach town of Harbor Country® is best known as "Michiana." This rustically charming village offers a quiet and residential neighborhood. Log homes built amidst the woodlands and dunes line the shores of Lake Michigan. A familiar question in Michiana is, "What stop are you at?," referring to the old bus route stations that still dot Lake Shore Drive. The bus stop markers remain as landmarks to navigate a variety of Lake Michigan beach access points.

GRAND BEACH

Enter through the stately white gates and you've arrived inside Grand Beach Village. Welcoming visitors and Chicago politicians to the village since the early 1900s, Grand Beach is home to a public golf course, nearly 50 Sears & Roebuck cottages and three Frank Lloyd Wright homes. Initially developed as a resort area, the residents are part of an association that carefully preserve their way of life in the community. While most of the surroundings have remained the same, the lifelong memories and tight knit community have visitors coming back year after year.

UNION PIER

Four miles north of New Buffalo is Union Pier, a favorite vacation destination with a wide variety of lodging options. Here you will find quaint bed & breakfasts, historic inns, vintage cottages and luxury homes nestled in the woods and along the shoreline. Small, road-end public beaches offer breathtaking views of Lake Michigan as you descend the stairs from the two public beach access points. Outdoor enthusiasts can take advantage of the non-motorized pathway for a morning walk or a bike ride to grab something to eat. Numerous restaurants, shops, breweries, art galleries and bakeries line the main thoroughfare along Red Arrow Highway in this one stoplight town.

This quaint and lovely town provides a slower pace amidst natural surroundings. Lodging options offer sprawling verandas or lakeside patios, perfect to take in the lake view while sipping on a cup of coffee or a glass of local wine.

Take the afternoon to browse local shops offering fine art, antiques, collectibles, gifts, and more. You'll witness a strong sense of community here, fostered by an active homeowners association, that creates a warm and familiar community.

HARBERT

Step back in time in Harbert. This quaint and peaceful town hasn't changed much since the days poet Carl Sandburg and his goats roamed its wooded lanes. Retaining its natural beach town appeal, this laid-back neck of the woods is home to artists, artisans, writers, and retirees.

Harbert offers a small-town vibe with ties to a Scandinavian history. Several Swedish inspired establishments co-exist with restaurants, a specialty coffee roaster, antique shops and a post office. Visitors are welcome to cycle or stroll along the non-motorized path to Harbert Community Park, a popular attraction for visitors and residents alike with its playgrounds, fishing pond, and the Chikaming Dog Park. The park hosts several free concerts and movies during the summer and the popular ice-skating rink in the winter.

SAWYER

As home to one of Michigan’s top travel destinations, Sawyer offers something for everyone. The star of the Sawyer show is Warren Dunes State Park, offering acres of hiking trails that meander through sand dunes and woods, a campground, and a dedicated dog-friendly beach. For the thrill seekers, sledding and sand surfing the 3-story tall dune, Tower Hill, provides a rush of adrenaline while taking in the stunning vistas of Lake Michigan.

Head one mile east on Sawyer Road to the downtown area. Several blocks buzz as locals and tourists alike happily mingle at the local craft brewery, a palatial garden center, a local coffee roaster, restaurants and art galleries. Year-round home enclaves are tucked into the dunes near the lakeshore or extend to the east to bountiful farmlands.

Note of Interest: As the sun dips into Lake Michigan at the end of the day, catch the phenomenon of viewing the Chicago Mirage, which reflects the city skyline located 60 miles west, across the lake. It’s quite the spectacle.

THREE OAKS

As the heart of arts and culture in Harbor Country, Three Oaks is a modern community with strong historic roots, particularly in agriculture and arts. Visitors can leisurely stroll the tree-lined village in the downtown district to discover art galleries, eclectic shops, a library, restaurants and antique stores. And there is absolutely no shortage of entertainment. Take in a live performance at the intimate live music venue or catch a flick at the historic arthouse cinema while sipping on a cocktail. Experience one of Michigan’s largest organic distilleries offering a putting-green course and distillery tours and tastings.

Residents of the village enjoy what many call the “Pleasantville” of Harbor Country. It’s a tight knit community where neighbors gather, and businesses thrive with the support of the Three Oaks Downtown Development Authority.

Located a few miles north of downtown Three Oaks, you’ll find Warren Woods, an amazing hiking destination. While there, pop into the Harbor Country Chamber of Commerce office for a pit stop or a water bottle refill.
